

(2) The Textile Products (Description) Act 1953 is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Prohibition of sale of textile products to which the prescribed trade description is not affixed.

2 Section four of the Principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (1) thereof the following subsections:—

“(1A) No person shall sell any textile products that have been manufactured elsewhere than within the Commonwealth unless the trade description applied thereto, or to the several appropriate portions thereof, as the case may be, contains, in addition to any other particulars prescribed by or under this Act, the name of the country in which those textile products were manufactured.

“(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A) of this section, the name of the country in which any textile products were manufactured shall be set forth in the trade description in prominent and legible characters conspicuously placed so as to be clearly visible.”.

Regulations.

3 Section nine of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by adding at the end of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) thereof the words “, and, in the case of textile products manufactured elsewhere than within the Commonwealth, the form of, and manner in which, the name of the country in which they were manufactured shall be set forth in that trade description;”; and

(b) by adding at the end of paragraph (d) of that subsection the words “, and so as to discriminate between textile products manufactured within the Commonwealth and textile products manufactured elsewhere than within the Commonwealth.”.
