

GUEST HOUSES REGISTRATION.

---

No. 29 of 1954.

AN ACT to amend the Guest Houses Registration Act 1937 and the Guest Houses Registration Act 1953.
[21 September, 1954.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Guest Houses Registration Act 1954.

(2) The Guest Houses Registration Act 1937, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Title.

2 The title of the Principal Act is amended by omitting therefrom the words “in certain cases”.

Registration of guest houses.

3 Section four of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsections:—

“ (12) If for any reason an application for the registration of a guest house is not finally determined before the existing registration thereof expires, the proprietor may continue to carry on the business of the guest house until the application is finally determined as if the application had been granted, and, while he so carries on the business of the guest house, it shall be deemed for all purposes to be registered under this Act.

“ (13) If, upon the consideration of an application for the registration of a guest house, the Board is of the opinion that the guest house does not fully comply with the requirements of this Act but that it is not desirable that the application should be refused, it may recommend to the Director that the guest house be provisionally registered for such period as the Board may think desirable, and the Director may provisionally register it accordingly.

“ (14) Where a guest house is provisionally registered pursuant to subsection (13) of this section, the Director shall order the proprietor of the guest house to take such steps, and to do all such acts and things, as the Board may consider necessary to make the guest house comply with the requirements for the registration thereof within such time as the Director, on the recommendation of the Board, may allow in that behalf.

“(15) Upon proof to the satisfaction of the Board that the requirements of an order under subsection (14) of this section have been complied with in respect of the guest house to which the order relates within the time allowed in that behalf pursuant to that subsection, the Board may recommend to the Director that the guest house be registered under this Act and the Director may register it accordingly.”.

4—(1) Section seven of the Guest Houses Registration Act 1953 is amended by omitting from paragraph (a) thereof the words “with the”.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of commencement of the Guest Houses Registration Act 1953.

---

RADIOACTIVE SUBSTANCES.

No. 30 of 1954.

---

AN ACT to make provision for regulating the use of radioactive substances and certain apparatus producing radiation, and for matters incidental thereto.

[21 September, 1954.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Radioactive Substances Act 1954. Short title and commencement.

(2) This Act shall commence on a date to be fixed by proclamation.

2 In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears— Interpretation.

“Council” means the Radiological Advisory Council constituted under this Act;

“certified dentist” means a certified dentist within the meaning of the Dentists Act 1919;

“irradiating apparatus” means apparatus that is capable of producing ionizing radiations of a prescribed type, or of accelerating atomic particles under prescribed conditions;

“licence” means a licence under this Act;