HYDRO-ELECTRIC COMMISSION (DOUBTS REMOVAL).

---

No. 18 of 1972.

AN ACT to remove doubts as to the powers that are exercisable by the Hydro-Electric Commission in relation to the construction and carrying out of certain works and purposes.

[24 August 1972.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as the Hydro-Electric Commission (Doubts Removal) Act 1972.

Interpretation.

2—(1) In this Act—

“Commission” means the Hydro-Electric Commission;

“enactment” includes a regulation, rule, by-law, proclamation, order, or other document made, issued, or having effect under or for the purposes of an enactment;

“the specified works” means the works and purposes that are specified in Part I of the schedule to the Hydro-Electric Commission (Power Development) Act 1967;

“works” has the same meaning as it has in the Hydro-Electric Commission Act 1944.

(2) In this Act, a reference to land includes a reference to land that, in its natural state, is covered by water and to the water by which it is covered.

3—(1) For the removal of doubts, and in confirmation of the intention of Parliament expressed in the Hydro-Electric Commission (Power Development) Act 1967, it is declared that the Commission has, and always has had, power to do all such acts, matters, and things on or in relation to land of the Crown as are necessary for, or are incidental to, the construction and carrying out of the specified works, whether or not that land has been, or is deemed by any enactment to have been, reserved, set aside, or dedicated for a public purpose or for the purposes of an enactment.

Powers of the Commission in relation to certain works.

(2) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, the power referred to therein includes the power to inundate land of the Crown.

(3) The provisions of this section are in addition to, and do not derogate from, the provisions of any other enactment relating to the construction or carrying out of works, or the use of water, by the Commission.

(4) Nothing in this section affects the operation of subsections (2) and (3) of section forty-six of the Hydro-Electric Commission Act 1944 or in any way relieves the Commission from its duty to comply with those subsections.

(5) This section has effect, and the powers referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are exercisable by the Commission, notwithstanding any law or rule of law in force or having effect in the State at the commencement of this Act.
