AN ACT to amend the Legal Practitioners Act 1896. A.D. 1942.
[22 July, 1942.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as the Legal Practitioners Act Short title. 1942.

6d.]

Legal Practitioners.

A.D. 1942. 2 In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

Interpretation.

“The present war” means the war in which His Majesty became engaged on the third day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine:

“War service” means war service as defined in the Defence Act 1903-1939 of the Commonwealth.

War service to be reckoned as service
under articles.

3 Where any articed clerk is, or becomes, engaged in war service during the present war, one-half of the period of such war service shall be reckoned as actual service under his articles of clerkship to the extent of not more than one-half of the service specified therein.

Qualification not affected by war service.

4 The war service of an articed clerk in relation to the present war, whether during the currency of his articles or after the expiration of his service thereunder, shall not constitute a contravention of any Act or Rule of Court relating to the qualification of articed clerks to be admitted to practice as practitioners of the Supreme Court.
