(2) The Long Service Leave Act 1956, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section seven of the Principal Act is amended by inserting, after subsection (4) thereof, the following new subsection:— Exemptions.

“(4A) Subsection (4) of this section does not apply in respect of a scheme in respect of which an exemption was in force immediately before the commencement of the Long Service Leave Act 1964 or any scheme varying, altering, or amending that scheme.”.

3 Section eight of the Principal Act is amended—

Entitlement
to long service leave.

(a) by omitting paragraph (b) of subsection (2) and substituting therefor the following paragraph:—

“(b) in the case of an employee to whom this paragraph applies who has not completed fifteen years' continuous service with his employer but has completed the requisite period of continuous employment with his employer such period of long service leave as bears the same proportion to thirteen weeks as the total period of the employee's continuous employment with his employer bears to fifteen years.”;

(b) by inserting after that subsection the following subsections:—

“(2A) Paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section applies to—

- (a) an employee who attains the age of retirement;
- (b) an employee whose employment is terminated on account of illness that the Chief Inspector certifies, in writing, is, in his opinion, of such a nature as to justify the termination of that employment;
- (c) an employee who terminates his employment on account of incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity that the Chief Inspector certifies, in writing, is, in his opinion, of such a nature as to justify the termination of his employment; and
- (d) an employee whose employment is terminated by his employer for any reason other than the serious and wilful misconduct of the employee.

“(2B) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section ‘the requisite period’ is—

- (a) in the case of an employee referred to in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (2A) of this section, eight years; and
- (b) in any other case, ten years.”; and
- (c) by omitting from subsection (3) the words “sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subsection (2)” and substituting therefor the words “subsection (2A)”.
