

T A S M A N I A.

1939.

ANNO TERTIO

GEORGII VI. REGIS.

No. 9.

ANALYSIS.

1. Short title.
2. Amendment of 58 Vict. No. 31.
Section 34.
Section 85.
3. Pipe-line, &c., through private property.
4. Compensation.

AN ACT to amend the Launceston Water and Light Act 1895. [28 November, 1939.]

A.D.
1939

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as the Launceston Water and Light Act 1939.

Short titl

Launceston Water and Light

A.D. 1939.

2 The Launceston Water and Light Act 1895 is hereby amended—

Amendment of 58 Vict.
No. 31.
Section 34.

I. By deleting the words “at the cost” to “house or dwelling” (in the eighth line of section thirty-four thereof), and by inserting “(1)” at the commencement thereof and the following new subsection (2)—

“(2) The cost of providing, laying down, affixing, and maintaining such service pipes and other necessary and proper appliances and apparatus shall be borne by such owner or occupier, or by the owner or occupier for the time being, of such house or dwelling, except the cost of maintaining such service pipes from the main or other pipe of the Corporation to such outer boundary, which shall be borne by the Corporation”: and

Section 85.

II. By inserting after the word “apparatus” in the second line of section eighty-five thereof the words “other than the service pipes leading from the main or other pipes of the Corporation to the outer boundary of the said premises.”

Pipe-line, &c.,
through private property.

3 It shall be lawful for the Corporation, or any person authorised by the Corporation in that behalf, with all necessary labourers and assistants, vehicles, and implements when and so often as it may be deemed necessary, to enter upon any private lands within or outside the City, and to make, lay down, enlarge, repair, cleanse, alter, remove, maintain, or continue upon any of such lands all or any pipes, pipe lines, drains, water-races, or water-courses whatsoever as the Corporation may deem necessary for the purpose of this Act: Provided that fourteen days' notice, in writing, signed by the Mayor of the City, of the intention so to enter upon any such lands shall be first given to the owner or occupier thereof by posting or delivering the same to him or by affixing the same in some conspicuous place on the land.

Compensation.

4 When any entry is made upon any private lands under the powers conferred by section three, the Corporation shall pay to each owner and occupier thereof such equitable compensation for any damage or inconvenience suffered by such owner and occupier respectively as is agreed upon between such owner or occupier respectively and the Corporation; and in case of dispute such compensation shall be recoverable from the Corporation in any court of competent jurisdiction.