DEVONPORT MARINE BOARD LOAN.

No. 43 of 1967.

AN ACT to amend the Devonport Marine Board Loan Act 1953. [24 November 1967.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Devonport Marine Board Loan Act 1967. Short title and citation.

(2) The Devonport Marine Board Loan Act 1953, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section three of the Principal Act is amended by omitting therefrom the numerals “5,000,000” and substituting therefor the numerals “10,000,000”. Borrowing powers.

NATIONAL LITERATURE BOARD OF REVIEW.

No. 44 of 1967.

AN ACT to protect members of the National Literature Board of Review from proceedings arising out of the performance of their functions.

[24 November 1967.]

WHEREAS the Governments of the Commonwealth and of the several States have agreed that arrangements should be made to avoid inconsistency in the administration of laws relating to blasphemous, indecent, or obscene literature: Preamble.

And whereas for the purpose of making those arrangements those Governments have entered into an agreement providing, among other things, for the establishment of an advisory body, to be known as the National Literature Board of Review, and regulating the membership of that Board and the performance of its functions and duties:

And whereas that agreement provides that each State that is a party to the agreement shall enact and continue in force such legislation as is appropriate on the part of the State to enable effect to be given to the provisions of the agreement, and that any such legislation shall include provisions to furnish protection to members of the Board in respect of proceedings arising out of the performance of their functions in accordance with the agreement:

And whereas it is desirable that the legislation of this State should make provision to furnish that protection to the members of the Board:

BE it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as the National Literature Board of Review Act 1967.

Interpretation.

2 In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“Board” means the National Literature Board of Review established for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act;

“Commonwealth Act” means the Customs Act 1901-1966 of the Commonwealth, and includes that Act as amended from time to time and any Commonwealth Act passed in substitution for that Act.

Protection of members of the National Literature Board of Review.

3 No action, claim, or demand lies, or shall be brought or allowed, in this State by or in favour of any person against a person who is, or at any time was, a member of the Board for or in respect of any loss, damage, or injury sustained or alleged to have been sustained by the first-mentioned person by reason of or arising out of any opinion expressed by the last-mentioned person in his capacity as a member of the Board upon or in relation to any book, document, or other matter submitted for the opinion of the Board for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act or of a law of this State or of any other State or of any Territory of the Commonwealth (being a law relating to blasphemous, indecent, or obscene publications, documents, or literature).
