

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS (ROYAL VISIT).

No. 47 of 1962.

AN ACT to make provision for the appointment of days as public holidays on the occasion of the visit to this State of Her Majesty the Queen.
[20 November 1962.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as the Public Holidays (Royal Visit) Act 1962.

Power of Governor to appoint holidays.

Cf. No. 90 of 1951, s. 2.

2—(1) The Governor may appoint a day or part of a day to be observed as a public holiday, in connection with the visit to this State during the year 1963 of Her Majesty the Queen, in any city, town, municipality, county, or area.

(2) In lieu of appointing a day or part of a day to be observed as a public holiday under subsection (1) of this section, the Governor may appoint parts of two or more different days, but so that not more than ten working hours in all are, or a part of a day comprising less than four hours is, so appointed.

(3) Different days or parts of days may be appointed under subsection (1) of this section in respect of different cities, towns, municipalities, counties, or areas.

(4) Where the Governor appoints a day or part of a day to be a public holiday under this section, the Minister shall cause a notification of the appointment of that day or part of a day as a public holiday to be published in the Gazette and in such newspapers as he deems advisable, and the notification shall specify the cities, towns, municipalities, counties, and areas in respect of which the appointment is made.

(5) In this section, "working hours" means the hours between eight o'clock in the forenoon and six o'clock in the afternoon.

Observance of holidays.
Ibid., s. 3.

3—(1) A day or part of a day that is appointed under section two shall be observed as a public holiday throughout the city, town, municipality, county, or area in respect of which it is appointed, and shall be deemed, for all purposes, to be a bank holiday throughout that city, town, municipality, county, or area as if it had been so appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Bank Holidays Act 1919.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Wages Boards Act 1920, a day or part of a day that is so appointed shall, in the city, town, municipality, county, or area in respect of which it is appointed, be deemed to be a holiday on full pay for the purposes of every determination under that Act as if it were expressly prescribed in the determination as a holiday on full pay and, notwithstanding the provisions of that Act or of any determination thereunder, every employee in that city, town, municipality, county, or area to whom the determination relates shall be allowed a holiday with full pay on that day or part of a day or shall, if he is not allowed a holiday on that day or part of a day, be paid such extra or special payment as is prescribed in the determination in respect of work done on holidays.

(3) An employer who, contrary to subsection (2) of this section, fails to allow a person who is employed by him a holiday on full pay on a day or part of a day that is so appointed or, if a person who is so employed is not allowed a holiday on that day or part of a day, fails to pay the person so employed at the appropriate rate of payment in respect of work done on holidays, as prescribed in the determination that is applicable to the employment, is guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Five pounds.

CROWN LANDS (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS).

No. 48 of 1962.

AN ACT to provide for the reinstatement of certain persons as purchasers of Crown lands, to authorize the sale or grant of certain Crown lands, to provide for the extinguishment of rights of passage over certain lands and for the exchange of those lands for certain other lands, and for the reservation of those other lands for highway purposes, and to provide for incidental and consequential matters. [20 November 1962.]
