PRIMARY PRODUCERS’ RELIEF.

No. 11 of 1969.

AN ACT to amend the Primary Producers’ Relief Act 1968. [14 October 1969.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Primary Producers’ Relief Act 1969. Short title and citation.

(2) The Primary Producers’ Relief Act 1968, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 After section four of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

Grants towards cost of transport of livestock.

“4A—(1) Where the Board is satisfied that, solely as a result of abnormally dry weather, livestock was removed from the property of an eligible person before the relevant date for agistment at some other place and the livestock, or any progeny thereof born while it was so agisted, has since been brought back by road to the property, the Board may, in its absolute discretion, make a grant to that person of a sum not exceeding half the expenses reasonably incurred by him in so bringing back to the property the livestock and any such progeny.

“(2) Where the Board is satisfied that, solely as a result of abnormally dry weather, any livestock ordinarily kept on the property of an eligible person died or was destroyed before the relevant date or, before that date, was disposed of and removed from the property, and the livestock has since been replaced by other livestock brought by road to the property, the Board may, in its absolute discretion, make a grant to that person of a sum not exceeding half the expenses reasonably incurred by that person in so bringing that livestock to the property.

“(3) A grant made under this section to a person shall, so far as it extends, be applied by the Board in the discharge of the liability of that person to repay to the Board the principal of any loan made to that person under this Act, and, to the extent that it cannot be so applied, shall be paid by the Board to that person.

“(4) References in this section to the property of an eligible person shall be construed as references to the land on which the farming operations were carried out by virtue of which he became an eligible person, and references in this section to an eligible person shall be construed as including references to the legal personal representatives of an eligible person who has died.

“(5) In this section ‘the relevant date’ means the commencement of the Primary Producers' Relief Act 1969.”.

Consequential amendments to Principal Act.

3 The provisions of the Principal Act specified in the first column of the schedule are amended respectively in the manner specified in the second column of that schedule.
