

- (c) the governing body of the institution shall, for the purposes of the Act of 1964, be deemed to be the committee of the institution; and
- (d) the persons who are members of any body under the existing rules of the institution who have power to alter those rules shall, for the purposes of the Act of 1964, be deemed to be members of the institution.

4. Unless, within a period of three months from the commencement of this Act, or within such further period as the Registrar may allow—

- (a) an application has been made under section ten of the Act of 1964 for the approval of the Registrar to the change of the name of the institution to a name by which it could be incorporated without contravention of section nine of the Act of 1964; and
- (b) the rules of the institution have, in accordance with section eighteen of the Act of 1964, been altered so that they comply with the provisions of that Act, the Registrar shall cancel the incorporation of the institution and publish notice of the cancellation thereof in the Gazette, and section thirty-six of the Act of 1964 applies to the cancellation as it applies to the cancellation of an incorporation under section thirty-four of that Act.

5. The rules of an institution shall, for the purposes of this schedule, be deemed to have been altered so that they comply with the provisions of the Act of 1964 if—

- (a) the model rules have been adopted (with or without modification) in place of the existing rules of the institution; or
- (b) the rules as so altered comply with the provisions of subsection (2) of section seventeen of that Act.

6. The property, rights, and interests that were, immediately before the commencement of this Act, vested in the governing body of an institution as incorporated under the repealed Act shall, on that commencement, vest in the institution as an incorporated association, and any duties, obligations, and liabilities to which, immediately before that commencement, that governing body was subject, shall continue after that commencement as the duties, obligations, and liabilities of that institution as an incorporated association.

2 Section eight of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from subsection (1) the words “, with the approval of the Minister,” (second occurring).

Registration of plumbers.

3 Section ten of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting from sub-paragraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) the words “is qualified in accordance with subsection (2) of this section” and substituting therefor the words “holds a prescribed qualification”; and

(b) by omitting subsection (2) and substituting therefor the following subsections:—

“(2) The qualifications that may be prescribed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section are—

(a) the passing of a specified examination, or the satisfactory completion of a specified trade course, conducted by an approved authority; or

(b) the grant or issue, under the law in force in a reciprocating country, of any specified licence, certificate of registration, certificate of competency, certificate of qualification, or other instrument indicating the knowledge or skill of the holder thereof in plumbing work or any form of plumbing work.

“(2AA) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, the Board may refuse to register a person under subsection (1) of this section in respect of a qualification obtained elsewhere than in the Commonwealth or the Dominion of New Zealand if it is satisfied that, in order to enable him to undertake satisfactorily in this State the plumbing work that he would be authorized to undertake pursuant to that registration, he should obtain experience, or further experience, of plumbing work in the Commonwealth or that Dominion.”.
