AN ACT to amend the Public Service Act 1923. A.D. 1943.
[2 June, 1943.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as the Public Service Act 1943. Short title.

6d.]

Public Service.

A.D. 1943.

Amendment
of 13 Geo. V.
No. 25, s. 68.

2 Section sixty-eight of the Principal Act is hereby amended, as from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection (5):—

“(5) Where any officer who is entitled to leave of absence under subsection (1) hereof would, within twelve months after the commencement of the leave so granted, attain the age for retirement prescribed in section fifty-four, such officer may elect to retire from the Service as from the date upon which such leave of absence, but for such election, would have commenced; and, if he so elects, the Governor may authorise the payment to him upon his retirement of a sum equivalent to the salary which such officer would have received during such leave of absence.”

Deferment of reclassification.

3 The Governor, by order-in-council, may direct that the first reclassification of the Service to be made as provided by subsection (7) of section twenty of the Principal Act shall be deferred until such date, not later than six months after the termination of the war in which His Majesty is at present engaged, as may be specified in such order; and thereafter the five-yearly periods prescribed by the said subsection shall run as from the date so specified.
