

PUBLIC SERVICE.

No. 18 of 1960.

AN ACT to amend the Public Service Act 1923.
[20 June 1960.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Public Service Act 1960.

(2) The Public Service Act 1923, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Payments in respect of leave of absence.

2 Section sixty-nine of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting from subsection (5) the words “long service, or of illness,” and substituting therefor the word “illness”; and
- (b) by omitting subsection (6) and substituting therefor the following subsections:—

“(6) Where immediately before his death an officer had not taken a period of leave of absence to which, by virtue of compliance with, or the fulfilment of, the prescribed conditions, he was then entitled, the amount of his salary for that period shall, in so far as it has not already been paid to him, be paid to his legal personal representatives or, if the Commissioner so determines, to his spouse or to any person whom the Commissioner is satisfied was dependent upon him at the time of his death.

“(6A) For the purposes of subsection (6) of this section the salary of an officer for a period of leave of absence that has not been taken by him shall be calculated as if that period of leave of absence had been taken to commence on the day following the day of his death and as if he had continued in the public service throughout that period.

“(6B) Subsections (5) and (6) of this section do not apply in respect of long service leave under the State Employees (Long-Service Leave) Act 1950.”
