

PUBLIC SERVANTS' RETIRING AND DEATH ALLOWANCES.

No. 14 of 1969.

AN ACT to amend the Public Servants' Retiring and Death Allowances Act 1925.

[4 November 1969.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title, citation, and commencement.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Public Servants' Retiring and Death Allowances Act 1969.

(2) The Public Servants' Retiring and Death Allowances Act 1925, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) This Act shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of July 1968.

Interpretation.

2 Section two of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting, before the definition of “public servant”, the following definition:—

“ ‘public hospitals authority’ means—

(a) a hospitals board within the meaning of the Hospitals Act 1918; or

(b) the board or other person or authority having the management or control of the Queen Alexandra Maternity Hospital or the Queen Victoria Maternity Hospital;” ;
and

(b) by adding at the end of the definition of “Public Service” the words “and the service of a public hospitals authority”.

Reckoning of hospital service before commencement of Act.

3 Where, after the commencement of this Act, a public servant dies or retires from the Public Service his service before that commencement in any position or capacity in the service of a public hospitals authority shall be treated for the purposes of the Principal Act as service as a public servant, but nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting or limiting the operation of any provision of the Principal Act.
