

(3) If a person so reappointed became entitled, by reason of his resignation to become a candidate, to an allowance under section seven of the State Employees (Long-Service Leave) Act 1950 he shall for the purpose of subsection (2) of this section be treated, in respect of the period in respect of which the amount of the allowance is calculated under subsection (5) of that section, or so much thereof as had expired before his reappointment took effect, as if absent, not on leave without pay or other emolument, but on long-service leave under that Act.

(4) If a person's reappointment as mentioned in subsection (3) of this section takes effect before the expiration of the period therein mentioned, the whole period shall for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section be deemed to have expired on the day before his reappointment took effect.

(5) No person has a right of appeal against an appointment under this section.

(6) Subject to the Public Servants' Retiring and Death Allowances Act 1925 and the Superannuation Act 1938, where the rights of a person so reappointed have been changed on his resignation, in respect of pension, pay in lieu of leave or otherwise, all necessary payments, repayments, and entries shall be made to put him in the same position as if he had been absent on leave as mentioned in subsection (2) of this section.
