

the officer be promoted to a higher rank, shall also state that fact and specify the rank to which it is proposed to promote him: and

II An appeal may be made under section forty-nine R only on the ground that the appellant has special aptitude for the performance of the duties of the position and that his aptitude therefor is superior to that of the police officer proposed to be appointed to the position, and, if it is proposed also to promote to a higher rank the officer appointed to the special position, on the further ground that the appellant is more entitled to promotion to that rank on the ground of superior efficiency, as defined in subsection (11) of section forty-nine R.

(4) An appeal against the proposed appointment of a police officer to a special position or his promotion, in consequence thereof, to a higher rank, shall be upheld by the Board only if it is satisfied that the aptitude of the appellant for the performance of the duties of the position is superior to that of the police officer proposed to be appointed to the position and that he is more entitled to promotion to that higher rank (if any) on the ground of superior efficiency, as defined in subsection (11) of section forty-nine R.

(5) In this section 'special position' means any position in the police force that is declared by the Commissioner, by notice in the Police Gazette, to be a special position for the purposes of this section."

20 The second schedule to the Principal Act is amended by omitting from form II the words "City of Hobart or District of _____ as the case may be" and substituting therefor the words " _____ District".

Second schedule.

21 As soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act, the Board shall cause to be paid to the Treasurer to the credit of the Consolidated Revenue all moneys, and all accumulations thereof, standing to the credit of the reward branch of the Fund at the commencement of this Act.

Application of moneys standing to the credit of the reward branch of the Fund.
