

RACING AND GAMING.

No. 32 of 1960.

AN ACT to amend the Racing and Gaming Act 1952. [30 September 1960.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Racing and Gaming Act 1960. Short title and citation.

(2) The Racing and Gaming Act 1952, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 After section eighty-five of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

“85A—(1) Subject to this section, the Treasurer may enter into an agreement with the appropriate Minister of the Crown in a State other than this State (in this section referred to as ‘the other State’) in relation to the sale in this State of tickets in lotteries conducted in the other State by a person specified in the agreement (in this section referred to as ‘the promoter’). Sale in this State of tickets in lotteries conducted elsewhere.

“(2) An agreement under this section—

(a) shall be expressed to continue in force for such period (not exceeding ten years after the date of the execution thereof) as is specified in the agreement; but shall contain a provision—

(i) enabling the operation of the agreement to be extended from time to time, by mutual consent of the parties thereto, for any periods not exceeding ten years at any one time; and

(ii) authorizing either party thereto to determine the agreement by giving not less than twelve months’ notice in writing to the other party thereto;

(b) shall provide for the payment to the Treasurer by the other party to the agreement, at such intervals as may be specified in the agreement, of a sum equal to not less than fifteen and one-half per cent of the total amount of all subscriptions received from time to time by the promoter and his accredited representatives (if any) in respect of the sale in this State of tickets in lotteries conducted by the promoter in the other State; and

(c) may contain such incidental and supplementary provisions as may be agreed upon between the parties thereto.

“(3) If the Treasurer enters into an agreement under this section, he shall grant to the promoter a permit authorizing the sale in this State of tickets in lotteries conducted by the promoter in the other State.

“(4) A permit under this section—

(a) while in force has effect, subject to this Part and to the prescribed conditions and to such other conditions (if any) as may be agreed upon between the Treasurer and the promoter and as are specified in, or indorsed on, the permit, to authorize the promoter and his accredited representatives (if any), notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, to sell in this State tickets in lotteries conducted by the promoter in the other State (being lotteries conducted under any law in force in the other State or under any licence or other authority issued or granted under any such law); and

(b) unless sooner surrendered or revoked in accordance with the regulations, continues in force for such period (not exceeding ten years after the date of the execution of the agreement under which it is granted) as may be specified in the permit, but may be renewed from time to time for any periods not exceeding ten years at any one time.

“(5) While a permit under this section is in force, any lottery to which the permit relates shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be lawful and to be a lottery that is authorized by or under this Division.

“(6) For the purposes of this section and of any agreement thereunder, a ticket in a lottery shall not be deemed to be a ticket that is sold in this State unless it is sold to a person (whether on personal application or by post) by the promoter or by an accredited representative of the promoter at or from premises in this State.

“(7) While a permit under this section is in force, the Treasurer shall not grant to any person a licence under section eighty-five.

“(8) No agreement shall be entered into and no permit shall be granted under this section so as to take effect at any time while a licence under section eighty-five is in force.

“(9) In this section, ‘accredited representative’ means a person who is appointed by the promoter as an accredited representative of the promoter and is approved as such by the Treasurer.”.
