

SUPERANNUATION.

No. 46 of 1953.AN ACT to amend the Superannuation Act 1938.
[10 November, 1953.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act 1953. Short title and citation.

(2) The Superannuation Act 1938, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2—(1) Section sixty-three of the Principal Act is amended— Re-employment of employees who have retired.

(a) by omitting subsection (9) thereof; and

(b) by inserting after subsection (10) the following subsection:—

“(10A) Where, on or after the commencement of the Superannuation Act 1953, a superannuation pensioner—

I. Becomes an employee: or

II. Performs the duties of any position in the service of the State for a period exceeding three months in any one year (whether a continuous period or not) and is paid a full-time salary in respect thereof, so much of the pension as is payable by the State shall be cancelled during the period during which he is an employee or performs those duties.”.

(2) The amendment effected by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of December, 1947.
