

way of compensation or indemnity for the loss or damage, notwithstanding that there may be circumstances or cases in which no such sum will become payable under the policy or that sums may become payable under that policy in respect of any other loss of, or damage to, property or on the happening of any other event.

“(5) Subject to paragraph 3 of this schedule, where an insurance policy makes provision for the indemnification of a person against any liability that he may incur arising from the loss of, or damage to, any property, or for the making of any payment to that person in respect of such a liability, that policy shall not, by reason only of the inclusion therein of such a provision, be treated for the purposes of this schedule as a policy that makes provision for insurance against that loss or damage.

“(6) For the purposes of this schedule any sum received by a person as agent of an insurance company shall be deemed to have been paid to and received by that company, and where any sum is in any manner charged in account by a company or its agent that sum shall be deemed to have been paid to and received by the company.”.

SURVEY CO-ORDINATION.

No. 31 of 1964.

AN ACT to amend the Survey Co-ordination Act 1944. [20 November 1964.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Survey Co-ordination Act 1964.

(2) The Survey Co-ordination Act 1944, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Nomenclature Board.

2 Section twenty A of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsections (2) and (3) and substituting therefor the following subsections:—

- “(2) The Board shall consist of ten members of whom—
- (a) one shall be the Surveyor-General who shall be the chairman of the Board;
 - (b) one shall be the Mapping Officer of the Lands and Surveys Department;
 - (c) one shall be the Mapping Officer of the Forestry Commission;
 - (d) one shall be the Town and Country Planning Commissioner; and
 - (e) six shall be appointed by the Governor.

“(3) Of the persons appointed as members of the Board under paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of this section—

- (a) one shall be a senior officer of the Mines Department;

- (b) one shall be a senior officer of the Hydro-Electric Commission nominated by the Commissioner of the Hydro-Electric Commission; and
- (c) four shall be persons nominated by the Minister who shall be appointed for a term of three years.”.

3 After section twenty A of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

“20AB—(1) The Surveyor-General with the approval of the Minister may by instrument in writing under his hand delegate to the Deputy Surveyor-General any of the powers, duties, functions, and authorities, of the chairman of the Board.

Delegation.
No. 5 of 1950,
s. 6.

“(2) Any such delegation may be made generally or in respect of any particular matter or class of matter and may be subject to all such conditions (if any) as the Surveyor-General considers necessary or desirable and as may be specified in the terms of delegation.

“(3) A delegation under this section shall be revocable at will and shall not prevent the exercise or performance of any power, duty, function, or authority, by the Surveyor-General.”.

4 Section twenty E of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsections (1) and (2) and substituting therefor the following subsections:—

Special provisions relating to the naming of towns and streets.

“(1) No proclamation shall be made under the provisions of—

- (a) section seven of the Local Government Act 1962 altering the name of a town; or
- (b) section four A of the Crown Lands Act 1935 assigning a name to an area of town lands, unless the question of the altered name of the town or, as the case may be, the name which it is proposed to assign to an area of town lands has been referred to the Board, as prescribed, and the Board has reported to the Governor that it approves of the altered name of the town or of the name proposed to be assigned to the area of town lands, as the case may be, and those provisions shall be construed accordingly.

“(2) Where the corporation in the exercise of the powers conferred on it by or under an Act assigns a name to, or alters the name of, a way, as defined in the Local Government Act 1962, in a city or town it shall within forty days after assigning a name to, or altering the name of, that way notify the Board, as prescribed, of the name so assigned or, as the case may be, of the alteration of the name.”.

5 Section twenty J of the Principal Act is amended by omitting sub-paragraph (vi) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and substituting therefor the following sub-paragraph:—

Publication of final decision as to alteration of name.

“(vi) the corporation affected by the decision.”.
