SUPREME COURT (No. 2).

No. 45 of 1958.

AN ACT to amend the Supreme Court Act 1831.

[21 November 1958.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Supreme Court Act Short title and citation (No. 2) 1958.

(2) The Supreme Court Act 1831, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 After section two of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted:—

Seals of the Court.

“3—(1) In addition to the seal of the Supreme Court under the Charter of Justice, the Court shall have and use, as occasion may require, such other seals as are recommended by the Chief Justice and approved by the Attorney-General.

“(2) The judges, or a majority of them, may make rules of court providing for and regulating the custody and use of any seal approved under subsection (1) of this section and the purposes for, and occasions on which, any such seal may be used.

Custody,
disposal, &c.,
of records.

“4 The judges, or a majority of them, may make rules of court providing for and regulating the custody, preservation, or disposal of—

(a) all or any records, or portions of records, of the Supreme Court or of its proceedings or of any special jurisdiction of the Court (including records relating to the exercise of any Federal jurisdiction or any jurisdiction under any Commonwealth Act); and

(b) any documents filed or deposited in connection with any such proceedings or the exercise of any such jurisdiction or under any law of this State or of the Commonwealth, whether or not the person to be entrusted for the time being or from time to time with the custody of any such records or documents is an officer of the Public Service of this State or of the Commonwealth or otherwise.”
