 [25 November, 1943.]

A.D.
 1943.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

- 1 This Act may be cited as the Stamp Duties Act 1943. Short title.

6d.]

Stamp Duties.

A.D. 1943. 2 The Principal Act is hereby amended—

Amendment of 22 Geo. V.
No. 19.
Section 7.

I. As to subsection (4) of section seven thereof—

- (a) By deleting the word “adhesive” in the first line: and
(b) By inserting at the end the words “but this provision shall not apply to any impressed stamp on any cheque, bill of exchange or bill of lading, or to any lottery or betting ticket.”:

Second
schedule.
Item 18.

II. By deleting the words “person making the same” in the third column of the second schedule thereto opposite item 18 and substituting “transferee or assignee”:

Third
schedule.

III. By inserting at the end of the third schedule thereto the following new item—

“Any instrument made for the purpose of crediting or regulating a trust fund or scheme established by an employer for the benefit of such of his employees as may have served or may serve with the Naval, Military, or Air Forces of the Commonwealth, the United Kingdom, or any other of His Majesty’s forces in the war in which His Majesty is now engaged or the dependants of such employees; and any receipt for a payment made to, or any gift or settlement in favour of, such fund.”: and

Fourth
schedule.

IV. As the fourth schedule thereto—

- (a) By inserting at the end of paragraph v. of rule 3 thereto (in alignment with the commencement of that paragraph) the words “but the amount for which the security is given shall not be deemed to be unlimited by reason only of the fact that the instrument contains a provision for capitalisation of unpaid interest or of payments made by the mortgagee for the protection of his security”: and
(b) By adding at the end of rule 4 the words “whether or not the instrument contains a covenant by any beneficiary or donee for the payment of the mortgage debt.”.
