AN ACT to amend the State Employees (Long-Service Leave) Act 1950 for the purpose of making further provision with respect to the long-service leave of State employees who, at the time of retirement, have not exhausted their long-service leave entitlements.

[12 July 1979]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—This Act may be cited as the State Employees (Long-Service Leave) Amendment Act (No. 2) 1979. Short title.

Commencement.

2—(1) This section and section 1 shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1), this Act shall commence on 1st July 1979.

Principal Act.

3—In this Act, the *State Employees (Long-Service Leave) Act 1950 is referred to as the Principal Act.

Amendment of section 7 of
Principal Act
(Allowances
to eligible employees in certain cases).

4—Section 7 (1) (ca) of the Principal Act is amended by inserting “who is not an eligible employee” after “male person”.

Amendment of section 8 of
Principal Act
(Long-service
leave of employees who have not exhausted
their long-
service leave
entitlements
at the time of retirement).

5—Section 8 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:—

(a) by inserting in subsection (3B) “subject to section 2A of the Retirement Benefits Act 1970 and to subsection (3c) but” after “employee shall,”;

(b) by omitting subsection (3c) and substituting the following subsection:—

(3c) A person who is deemed by subsection (3B) to have retired from his employment is, for the period of the leave of absence referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (3), as the case may be, or, if he dies during that period, until his death, entitled to enjoy the rights and benefits which he would, but for that retirement, have been entitled to enjoy, but that entitlement is subject to any obligations and liabilities that would otherwise attach to the enjoyment of those rights and benefits.
