

SOUTHERN REGIONAL WATER SUPPLY.

No. 61 of 1957.

AN ACT to amend the Southern Regional Water Supply Act 1946. [20 November 1957.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Southern Regional Water Supply Act 1957.

(2) The Southern Regional Water Supply Act 1946, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 After section twenty-three of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

Supply of water for purposes
other than domestic purposes.

“24—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Part, the Administrator may, subject to this section, enter into a contract with any person for the supply to that person of water for purposes other than domestic purposes, for such period, upon and subject to such terms and conditions, and at such price, as may be specified in the contract.

“(2) A contract may be entered into under this section notwithstanding that the water to be supplied in pursuance thereof is to be supplied to a place outside a water district.

“(3) The Administrator shall not enter into a contract under this section unless—

- (a) he is satisfied that it is practicable to supply water in the quantity required by the other party to the contract without prejudice to the supply of water to councils and other persons for domestic purposes; and
 - (b) the Governor has approved of the price proposed to be charged by the Administrator for water supplied pursuant to the contract.”
