AN ACT to amend the Statutory Salaries Act 1974 and the Supreme Court Act 1959.

[15 May 1975]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

- 1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Statutory Salaries Act 1975. Short title and citation.
- (2) The Statutory Salaries Act 1974 is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 After Section 5 of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

Salary of Master.

“5A—(1) The rate of salary of the Master shall be 92 per cent of the maximum rate of salary for a permanent head as determined in accordance with the scales of salaries laid down under an award in force under Part V of the Public Service Act 1973.

“(2) In addition to the salary prescribed, the Master is entitled to be paid such travelling allowances and other allowances as the Governor determines, and, until the Governor makes a determination under this subsection, is entitled to be paid the same travelling allowances and other allowances as are prescribed in respect of permanent heads of departments in any award applicable to them that is in force for the time being under the Public Service Act 1973.”.

Consequential amendments.

3 The Supreme Court Act 1959 is amended—

- (a) by omitting subsections (3) and (4) of section 4; and
- (b) by repealing section 5A.
