

TRANSPORT (No. 2).

No. 71 of 1953.

AN ACT to amend the Transport Act 1938.
[9 December, 1953.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Transport Act (No. 2) 1953. Short title and citation.

(2) The Transport Act 1938, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section nine of the Principal Act is amended—

General powers of Commission.

- (a) by omitting paragraph VI. of subsection (1); and
- (b) by adding at the end thereof the following subsections:—

“(12) With the approval of the Governor, the Commission may, in relation to any matter or class of matters, by instrument in writing under its common seal, delegate all or any of the powers of the Commission (other than this power of delegation) under—

- I. This Act: or
- II. Any Act or enactment that is incorporated with this Act or with any Part of this Act, to the Commissioner, or to an Associate Commissioner, or to any other person who is named in the instrument, so that the delegated powers may be exercised by the Commissioner, Associate Commissioner, or person with respect to the matter or class of matters specified in the instrument.

“(13) Where, by or under this Act or by or under any Act or enactment that is incorporated with this Act or with any Part of this Act, the exercise of a power or function is dependant upon the opinion, belief, or state of mind of the Commission in relation to a matter, and that power or function has been delegated by the Commission pursuant to subsection (12) of this section, that power or function may be exercised upon the opinion, belief, or state of mind of the delegate in relation to that matter.

“(14) A delegation by the Commission under subsection (12) of this section is revocable at will, either by the Governor or by the Commission, and does not prevent or affect the exercise of any power or function by the Commission.”.
