

TASMANIA.

1919.

ANNO DECIMO

GEORGII V. REGIS.

No. 33.

ANALYSIS.

1. Short title and incorporation with 9 Geo. V. No. 72.
2. Amendment of Section 4 of 9 Geo. V. No. 72.
3. Repeal of Section 5 of 9 Geo. V. No. 72 and new section substituted.
4. Repeal of Section 6 of 9 Geo. V. No. 72 and new section substituted.
5. Erection of packing-shed, &c., upon a jetty.

AN ACT to amend "The Advances to Fruit-growers Act, 1918," and for other purposes. A.D. 1919.
 [19 December, 1919.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Advances to Fruitgrowers Act Amendment Act, 1919," and shall be incorporated and construed as one with "The Advances to Fruitgrowers Act, 1918" (hereinafter called the Principal Act). Short title and incorporation with 9 Geo. V. No. 72.

2 Section Four of the Principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "Five" from the last line of Subsection (1) thereof, and by inserting in substitution therefor the word "Eight." Amendment of Section 4 of 9 Geo. V. No. 72.

Advances to Fruitgrowers Amendment.

A.D. 1919.

Repeal of Section
5 of 9 Geo. V.
No. 72 and new section substituted.

3 Section Five of the Principal Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

“5 The purposes for which advances may be made under this Act shall be all or any of the following; that is to say:—

- i. The purchase of land on which a packing-shed or pulping-works is or are to be erected :
- ii. The erection of packing-sheds, or assisting to pay the cost of any shed already erected or in the course of erection :
- iii. The erection of pulping-works or assisting to pay the cost of any pulping-works already erected, or in the course of erection :
- iv. The purchase of pulping-works :
- v. The purchase of fruit-grading machinery.”

Repeal of Section
6 of 9 Geo. V.
No. 72 and new section substituted.

4 Section Six of the Principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:—

“6—(1) If the advance or any portion thereof be made to enable a company to purchase land on which to erect a packing-shed or pulping-works, the amount of such advance shall not exceed Seventy-five per centum of the capital value of the said land, and such land, when purchased, shall be conveyed to the company and in its name.

“(2) If the advance or any portion thereof be made to enable a company—

- i. To erect a packing-shed on land of which the company is the owner in fee simple, or to assist the company in paying the cost of any packing-shed already erected or in the course of erection on such land : or
- ii. To erect pulping-works on land of which the company is the owner in fee simple, or to assist the company in paying the cost of any pulping-works already erected or in the course of erection on such land : or
- iii. To purchase land and to erect a packing-shed or pulping-works thereon—

then in any such case the amount of the advance shall not exceed Seventy-five Pounds per centum of the total capital value of such land, plus the value of the packing-shed calculated on the estimated cost of construction and erection, and, as regards pulping-works, plus the value of such works calculated on the estimated cost of building, machinery, appurtenances and all things whatsoever necessary to make them a thorough going concern.

“(3) If the advance or any portion thereof be made to enable a company to erect a packing-shed, or to assist in paying the cost of any packing-shed already erected or in course of erection, on land leased to the company by the Crown, or held by the company under licence or otherwise from the Crown for the purpose, or to erect pulping-works on any land so leased or held under licence, then in any such case the amount of the advance shall not exceed Seventy-five Pounds per centum of the value of the packing-shed, calculated on the estimated cost of construction and erection; or as regards pulping-works, Seventy five Pounds per centum of the value of such works, calculated on the estimated cost of building, machinery, appurtenances, and all things whatsoever necessary to make them a thorough going concern. A.D. 1919.

Advances to Fruitgrowers Amendment.

“(4) If the advance be made to enable a company to purchase pulping-works already in existence and a going concern, such advance shall only be made when the pulping-works are on freehold land or on land leased from the Crown, or held under licence or otherwise from the Crown, and the amount of such advance shall—

- i. When the pulping-works are on freehold land, not exceed Seventy-five per centum of the capital value of the land, plus the value of the works calculated on the estimated cost of building, machinery, appurtenances, and all things whatsoever necessary to make them a thorough going concern: or
- ii. When the pulping-works are on land leased from the Crown, or held under licence or otherwise from the Crown, not exceed Seventy-five Pounds per centum of the value of the works calculated on the estimated cost of building, machinery, appurtenances, and all things whatsoever necessary to make them a thorough going concern.

“(5) If the advance be made to enable a company to purchase grading machinery, the amount of advance shall not exceed Fifty Pounds per centum of the value of such machinery.”

5 After Section Ten of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted:—

“10a No advance shall be made to any company under this Act in respect of any packing-shed or pulping-works erected or to be erected wholly or partly upon a jetty—

- i. Within the limits of the jurisdiction of a marine board, or vested in or controlled by any municipal council or other authority, unless the company applying for the advance shall have obtained the consent in writing of such board, council, or authority to the erection of such shed or works, and shall produce such consent to the Minister disclosing the conditions (if any) imposed by such board, council, or authority; nor
- ii. Unless an officer of the Department of Public Works designated by the Minister for Works, shall certify to the Minister by a report in writing that he is satisfied—

(a) Where the shed or works have been erected, before any advance is made in respect thereof, that such shed or works have been well and faithfully built and completed;

Erection of packing shed,
&c., upon a jetty.

Advances to Fruitgrowers Amendment.

A.D 1919.
—

(b) Where the shed or works have not been erected or completed before any advance has been made in respect thereof, that he is satisfied with the manner in which the company proposes to erect the same—and that the said jetty is in good order and condition, and substantial enough to support or carry the weight of the said shed or works when fully equipped. The said certificate shall be submitted to and approved by the Governor.”

“10b No advance shall be made under this Act until the Crown Solicitor shall have certified that he is satisfied with the title to the property proposed as security.”