AN ACT to further amend "The Crown Lands Act, 1911." [24 December, 1920.] A.D. 1920

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Crown Lands Act, 1920," and shall be incorporated with and read as one with "The Crown Lands Act, 1911" (hereinafter referred to as "The Principal Act"), and any amendment thereof. Short title and incorporation with 2 Geo. V. No. 64.

Crown Lands.

A.D. 1920.

Repeal of Section
117 of Principal Act.

Pastoral lease.

2 Section One hundred and seventeen of the Principal Act is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

“The Commissioner may, with the consent of the Governor, lease by private contract to any person who is the holder of a temporary occupation licence, or to any persons approved of by the Commissioner, a special lease, called ‘a pastoral lease,’ of the land held under such temporary licence, or land applied for by such approved persons, for any period not exceeding Fourteen years on such terms and conditions as the Governor sees fit: Provided that this section shall only apply to lands within a mining area and that no pastoral lease granted therein shall exceed One thousand acres.”

Resumption for purposes of ‘The Returned Soldiers’
Settlement Act,
1916.’

7 Geo. V. No. 20.

3 After Section One hundred and twenty-nine of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

“129a—(1) The Commissioner may, upon the recommendation in writing of the President of the Closer Settlements Board, resume, in the manner provided by Subsection (1) of Section One hundred and twenty-nine, any land leased, or any part thereof, which the said President deems it desirable should be resumed, in order that the same may be set apart to be disposed of under and for the purposes of ‘The Returned Soldiers’ Settlement Act, 1916,’ notwithstanding that such purposes or some of them are the same as those for which the land was leased, and upon any such resumption compensation shall be made by the Commissioner to the lessee as provided in Subsection (1) of Section One hundred and twenty-nine.

Proclamation
setting apart land dispensed with.

“(2) When any land has been resumed under this section, such land shall thenceforth, without any proclamation to that effect, be deemed to have been set apart by the Governor under Subsection (2) of Section Nine of ‘The Returned Soldiers’ Settlement Act, 1916,’ to be disposed of by way of sale or lease to discharged soldiers in the manner provided by that Act.

Disposal of moneys accruing from sale or leasing of land.

“(3) All moneys accruing from the sale or leasing of such land shall be disposed of as if they had accrued from the sale or leasing of Crown land under the Principal Act.

Meaning of ‘discharged
soldier.’

“(4) For the purposes of this Act the expression ‘discharged soldier’ shall have the meaning assigned to it in Section Two of ‘The Returned Soldiers’ Settlement Act, 1916.’”
