55 Vict. No. 25.

Section Twenty-eight of the Principal Act, any allotment of land exceeding in value, exclusive of the buildings thereon, One thousand five hundred Pounds, but not exceeding in value, exclusive of the buildings thereon, Four thousand Pounds.

3 Section Forty of the Principal Act is hereby amended by repealing in line Eight the word "with," and substituting therefor the words "exclusive of."

4 In applying the provisions of Section Thirty of the Principal Act in the case of Crown land brought under or subject to that Act, the period of Two years shall be substituted for the period of One year mentioned in line Two of paragraph ii. of the said section.

5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Principal Act, the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Board, sell in fee simple, by auction or private contract, for cash or upon credit, or partly for cash and partly upon credit, under and in accordance with the provisions of any Act for the time being in force relating to the sale or disposition of Crown lands, any portions of any land acquired for the purposes of closer settlement which the Board is of opinion are not suitable for disposal by way of lease under the Principal Act; and the proceeds arising from any such sale shall be paid into the Treasury, and be placed to the credit of the Closer Settlements Fund and form part thereof.

6 All rent, interest, or other moneys due, owing, or payable at the commencement of this Act, or which may thereafter from time to time become due, owing, or payable under the Principal Act or any amendment thereof, or under or by virtue of any lease thereunder, shall be deemed to be a debt due to His Majesty, and payment thereof may be recovered and enforced under the provisions of "The Crown Remedies Act, 1891," as in the case of debts due to His Majesty.
