1954, s. 7.

11—(1) The Authority shall hold such meetings as in the opinion of the Director-General are necessary for the efficient conduct of its business, and a meeting of the Authority with the approval of the Minister shall be held at any time if requested by a member.

(2) The Director-General shall preside at all meetings of the Authority at which he is present, and in his absence from any meeting the Director shall preside.

(3) Three members, of whom the Director-General or Director shall be one, are the quorum of the Authority for the transaction of business.

(4) Any question arising at a meeting of the Authority shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting on the question, each of whom shall have only one vote.

(5) The Authority shall cause minutes of its proceedings to be recorded and kept.

(6) A member of the Authority who is interested in any way, whether directly or indirectly, in any contract, agreement, or transaction entered into, or proposed to be entered into, by the Crown or the Minister for the purposes of this Act shall disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Authority and the disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(7) Subject to this section, the Authority may regulate its own procedure.

PART IV.

OFFICERS AND STAFF.

The Director
General.

12—(1) The Governor may appoint a person to be Director-General of Tourism.

(2) The Director-General shall be the chief executive officer of the Authority.

The Director.

13—(1) The Governor may appoint a person to be Director of the Department.

(2) The Director shall be the Director-General's deputy, be responsible for the internal working of the Department, and have such other duties as the Authority determines.

Conditions of service.

Cf. ibid., s. 9A.

14—(1) The Director-General and the Director shall not be subject to the Public Service Act 1923.

(2) The Director-General and the Director shall be paid such salaries as the Governor may appoint, and be entitled to such allowances and reimbursements as may be prescribed.

(3) Subsection (2) of section ten applies to regulations made for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The conditions of service of the Director-General and the Director shall be such as the Governor determines.

- (d) publish lists of houses so registered and classified;
- (e) as prescribed, alter the classification of such houses; and
- (f) authorize distinguishing signs for display at or on houses so registered and classified.

(2) If premises licensed under the Licensing Act 1932 are required to be registered under this section, the licensees thereof and their premises are entitled to such registration notwithstanding any determination under subsection (1) of this section.

PART VII.

FINANCE.

23—(1) Grants under section nineteen shall be made out of such moneys as have been appropriated out of the Consolidated Revenue for that purpose.

Financial provisions.

(2) Loans under section twenty shall be made out of such moneys as have been appropriated out of the Loan Fund for that purpose.

(3) The Minister's contingent liabilities under section twenty-one shall—

- (a) as to liability for principal moneys guaranteed, not be allowed to exceed five million dollars at any one time; and
- (b) if they become certain, be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue, which, to the necessary extent, is appropriated accordingly.

24—(1) Loans under section twenty shall be made—

Conditions of loans under section 20.

- (a) at a rate of interest not less than one-half of one per cent higher than the rate for the longest period of the last preceding loan sought by the Commonwealth from the public of this State, along with others, for cash; and
- (b) subject to paragraph (a) of this subsection, upon such terms and conditions, upon such security, and repayable within such period, as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Authority, in each case determines.

(2) The Minister may requisition the Treasurer for any moneys required for the purposes of this section, being moneys that have been appropriated as mentioned in subsection (2) of section twenty-three, and the Treasurer may pay to the Minister the money so requisitioned.

(3) The Minister shall pay to the Treasurer on account of the Consolidated Revenue quarterly on the last day of September, December, March, and June, respectively in each financial year, interest at the State rate, as defined in section twenty-four of the Hydro-Electric Commission Act 1944, in respect of all moneys paid by the Treasurer to the Minister under this section, or so much thereof as for the time being remains owing.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, the Minister may, out of revenue received in respect of loans and guarantees made or given under Part VI, set aside such sums as he considers necessary for the purpose of—

- (a) making provision for undetermined loss or liabilities; or
- (b) creating a reserve or reserves against contingencies.

(5) The Minister shall not exercise the power conferred on him by subsection (4) of this section, unless the Treasurer has approved of the amounts of each provision or reserve and the purpose for which each provision or reserve is made.

(6) With the consent of the Treasurer, the Minister may apply the moneys set aside or provided pursuant to subsection (4) of this section for either or both of the following purposes, namely:—

- (a) In making interest-bearing deposits with the Treasurer; and
- (b) In making payments to the Treasurer in reduction of the capital indebtedness of the Minister to the Treasurer under this section.

(7) The Minister may terminate interest-bearing deposits under subsection (6) of this section and apply the moneys for any purpose for which provision may be made or a reserve created under subsection (4) of this section.

(8) When, in any financial year, the profit and loss account for the immediately preceding year, prepared by the Minister pursuant to this section, shows—

- (a) a credit balance, the amount thereof shall be applied by the Minister in such manner as the Treasurer may approve or direct; or
- (b) a debit balance, the Treasurer shall pay the amount thereof to the Minister out of the Consolidated Revenue, which, to the necessary extent, is appropriated accordingly.

Conditions of guarantee under section 21.

25—(1) A guarantee may be given under section twenty-one only as provided in this section.

(2) A guarantee may be given only where—

- (a) the person whose payment is guaranteed has given his creditor other security;
- (b) the principal sum guaranteed does not exceed in value two-thirds of that other security;
- (c) the rate of interest payable to the creditor is not more than the Treasurer determines; and

(d) the Minister obtains from the person whose payment is guaranteed—

(i) a covenant to repay all moneys paid by the Minister under the guarantee with such interest and on such terms and conditions; and

(ii) such security for performance of the covenant, as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Authority, determines.

(3) The Minister may make a charge for giving a guarantee under section twenty-one.

26—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, all fees, <sup>Revenue.</sup> charges, and other moneys received on account of the Department shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to—

(a) repayment of principal money lent under section twenty;

(b) interest received and charges made under sections twenty and twenty-five;

(c) moneys received as agent or trustee of a person other than the Crown; and

(d) such other revenue of the Department as the Treasurer may direct, which shall be dealt with as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Moneys mentioned in subsection (2) of this section—

(a) shall, in the case of moneys originally lent by the Treasurer and interest due to him thereon, be paid to him on account of the Loan Fund or as the case may require and he may direct;

(b) shall, in the case mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection, be paid to the persons on whose account they were received; and

(c) may in other cases be paid out to meet losses on profit-making ventures of the Department, including loans under section twenty and guarantees under section twenty-one, or otherwise as the Treasurer, subject to the Public Account Act 1957, directs.

27 Costs incurred in the administration of sections twenty and twenty-one shall be defrayed in the first place and in priority to everything else out of revenues accruing under those sections and sections twenty-four and twenty-five. <sup>Administration expenses of loans and guarantees.</sup>

28 The Department shall keep such accounts and prepare such <sup>Accounts.</sup> statements in relation thereto, in such form and containing such particulars as the Treasurer may direct.

PART VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Annual report.
25 Geo. V
No. 31, ss. 10,
11.

29—(1) The Authority shall, once in every year, make a report to the Minister on the administration of the Department during the preceding year.

(2) The Minister shall cause the yearly report of the Authority to be laid before both Houses of Parliament within thirty days after receipt thereof if Parliament is then sitting, and if not, within thirty days after the next meeting of Parliament.

Offences.
Ibid., s. 9,
1 Geo. VI
No. 57, s. 7.

30—(1) A person not acting on behalf of the Department or with the written authorization of the Authority shall not trade, or carry on business under, or in any way use in connection with any trade or business or on any business premises, any name containing—

- (a) the words “Tasmanian Government Tourist Department”, “Tasmanian Tourist Department”, “Government Tourist Department”, “Government Tourist Bureau”, “Tasmanian Government Tourist Bureau”, “Tasmanian Tourist Bureau”, “State Tourist Bureau”, or “Tasbureau”;
- (b) the name of the Department or any words which are an imitation of that name; or
- (c) any words which are likely to mislead or deceive the public into believing that such trade or business is identical or connected with that of the Department.

Penalty: One thousand dollars.

(2) A person shall not—

- (a) in any advertisement, circular, or other writing falsely represent, hold out, or suggest that any house therein mentioned is registered under section twenty-two or is registered with the Department;
- (b) in any other manner make any false or misleading misrepresentation with intent thereby to convey that any house is so registered; or
- (c) display or cause to be displayed at or on any house a distinguishing sign authorized under paragraph (f) of section twenty-two but not for display at or on that house.

Penalty: Two hundred and fifty dollars.

(3) A person shall not conduct or carry on the business of a house registerable under section twenty-two, unless that house is so registered or is exempted as provided by the regulations.

Penalty: Two hundred and fifty dollars and a daily penalty of twenty-five dollars.

Regulations.
Cf. 9 & 10
Geo. VI No.
31, s. 8.

31—(1) The Governor may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The regulations may—

(a) prescribe—

- (i) the form of application for loans under section twenty;

- (ii) the persons to whom loans may be made under that section;
  - (iii) the management, maintenance, and conduct of facilities in respect of which loans have been made under that section;
  - (iv) the inspection of facilities in respect of which loans have been made under that section;
  - (v) the furnishing of information by proprietors of facilities in respect of which loans have been made under that section; and
  - (vi) the conditions upon which loans in respect of facilities or of any specified class of facilities may be made under that section or may be repaid, called up, or recovered; and
- (b) provide for an appeal against refusal to register under section twenty-two or against a classification made thereunder.

32—(1) In this section—

- “the appointed day” means the day appointed under subsection (3) of this section;
- “transferred officer” means a person whose name is listed under that subsection.

Transfer of staff.

(2) On the appointed day all transferred officers shall become subject to the Public Service Act 1923—

- (a) if they were permanently employed as mentioned in that subsection, as officers as if so appointed on the dates on which they came to be so employed; and
- (b) if they were not so employed, as temporary employees.

(3) The Governor may, for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, by notice in the Gazette—

- (a) list the names of persons employed under section four of the Tourist and Immigration Department Act 1934 or section six of the State Tourist Accommodation Houses Act 1927; and
- (b) appoint a day on which they shall become subject to the Public Service Act 1923.

(4) Until—

- (a) awards have been made under the Public Service Tribunal Act 1958 in respect of the salaries and conditions of service of all transferred officers still in the Public Service; and

(b) all such officers and their offices have been classified under section twenty of the Public Service Act 1923, transferred officers shall be paid such salaries and be subject to such conditions of service as the Public Service Commissioner determines, being no worse than those which they were paid and to which they were subject immediately before the appointed day.

(5) A transferred officer aggrieved by a determination under subsection (4) of this section may appeal to the Public Service Appeal Board which shall hear the appeal and either confirm or vary the determination appealed from, and if it varies the determination, the determination so varied shall be deemed to be that of the Public Service Commissioner for the purposes of this section.

(6) Transferred officers keep rights to leave and other incidents of their service that had accrued on the appointed day.

(7) Persons employed under the sections mentioned in subsection (3) of this section who are not transferred officers shall on the appointed day become employees of the Authority on the same terms and conditions as they were employed by the Crown or the Director of the Tasmanian Government Tourist Bureau, as the case may be, without any diminution of their rights, accrued or accruing.

(8) Until the appointed day all persons employed under the sections mentioned in subsection (3) of this section shall continue to be employed as they were immediately before the commencement of this Act, except that for those then employed by the Director of the Tasmanian Government Tourist Bureau, the Authority is substituted for that Director.

(9) The Director of the Tasmanian Government Tourist and Immigration Department in office at the commencement of this Act is eligible for appointment as the Director-General and if not so appointed is entitled then to be appointed the Director.

Property.

33—(1) All property that was, immediately before the commencement of this Act, vested in the Director for the purposes of the State Tourists' Accommodation Houses Act 1927 is by force of this section vested in the Minister for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Where land of the Crown was, immediately before the commencement of this Act, used for the purposes of that Act it shall be deemed to have been leased by the Crown to the Minister for ninety-nine years and the Minister may with the consent of the Governor call for conveyance of the reversion expectant on the term and is entitled to a grant accordingly.

Contracts.

34—(1) In contracts under the Tourist Accommodation Loans Act 1945 to which the Minister administering this Act was a party, the Minister administering this Act shall be deemed to be identical with the Minister administering that Act.

(2) Contracts and agreements entered into before the commencement of this Act by or with the Director of the Tasmanian Government Tourist Bureau for the purposes of the Tourist and Immigration Department Act 1934 or as otherwise provided in this Part and subsisting immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be enforceable by and against the Crown.
