

- (d) sell the land as if he held the land upon trust to sell it, and to receive the proceeds of sale, and after paying and retaining thereout the costs and expenses of the sale to stand possessed of the residue of the proceeds in trust for the person entitled thereto.

“(4) In respect of a sale pursuant to this section, the Sheriff, and his servants and agents in that behalf, shall incur no greater liability than would be the case if the sale had been made pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

“(5) Where the Minister consents to a transfer of land the subject of a notification under this section, the provisions of section nine shall apply in all respects as if the money secured by the notification under this section was money secured by a notification under section nine which section shall be complied with accordingly.

“(6) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, where the owner of land which may be sold under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section is in indigent circumstances, the Minister may, instead of making an application to the Sheriff under this section, notify that owner that he will allow the whole or part of the moneys then being or thereafter to become a charge on the land to go unpaid until the death of the owner or until further notice, whichever event is the first to occur.

“9D For the purposes of subsection (17) of section nine and paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section nine c, an allegation in a complaint or a plaint that an owner of land has failed to insure, as required by paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of section nine, shall be deemed to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.”

Proof of failure to insure.

TOURISM DEVELOPMENT (STAFF).

No. 62 of 1972.

AN ACT to amend the Tourism Development Act 1970. [21 December 1972.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Tourism Development (Staff) Act 1972. Short title and citation.

(2) The Tourism Development Act 1970 is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section thirty-two of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (5). Transfer of staff.

Classification of staff.

3—(1) In this section “officer” means an officer or temporary employee (within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1923) who holds an office or position in the Department of Tourism and Immigration at the commencement of this Act.

(2) The Public Service Commissioner shall within the sixty days next after the commencement of this Act classify each officer in accordance with section twenty of the Public Service Act 1923 in respect of some principal award under the Public Service Tribunal Act 1958 as nearly as possible applicable to his office or position so that each officer’s salary and, so far as they depend on such an award, his allowances and conditions of service can be determined by reference only to the classification and the award.

(3) The classification to be made under subsection (2) of this section is a salary determination within the meaning of the Public Service Tribunal Act 1958 and section twenty A of that Act applies in respect of it as if it were made to have effect from the date on which any relevant principal award came into force and had effect, and were the first so made, after the award was made.

(4) Where by reason of the provisions of subsection (3) of this section an application is made under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section twenty A of that Act, an order made thereon has effect on and from the date of the classification under subsection (2) of this section on which the application is based, and not as provided in subsection (5) of that section.

Validation of payments.

4 The salary and allowances paid to a transferred officer within the meaning of section thirty-two of the Principal Act shall, during the period between the day appointed under subsection (3) of that section and the Public Service Commissioner’s determination under subsection (4) of that section in respect of the transferred officer, be deemed to have been paid under the authority of such a determination.
