ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO-SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 3.

AN ACT to amend "The District Justices Acts." A.D. 1892.
[7 November, 1892.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The District Justices Acts" in the manner hereinafter appearing: PREAMBLE.
47 Vict. No. 7.

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:— 48 Vict. No. 1.

1 This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The District Justices Acts Amendment Act, 1892." Short title.

2 In this Act the expression "the said Acts" means "The District Justices Acts." Interpretation.

3 Every Town proclaimed under "The Town Boards Act, 1891," and which at the date on which it was proclaimed a Town under the last-mentioned Act was situate within a Rural Municipality, shall remain and shall be deemed to have always remained within the boundaries of such Rural Municipality for the purposes of the said Acts; and every person appointed either before or after the passing of this Act as a Justice of the Peace in and for such Rural Municipality shall have and shall be deemed to always have had the same jurisdiction, power, authority, and privileges as such Justice of the Peace in every such Town as aforesaid as well after as before it was so proclaimed as aforesaid. Jurisdiction of Justices in Town proclaimed under 55 Vict. No. 41 within a Rural Municipality.
