AN ACT to amend the Dairy Produce Act, 1930. [19 October, 1931.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Dairy Produce Act, 1931." Short title.

A.D. 1931.

Amendment of 21 Geo. V. No. 66.

New Section 28a.

Restriction of use of milk products in margarine and butter substitutes, &c.

2 The Dairy Produce Act, 1930, is hereby amended by inserting after Section Twenty-eight the following new Section 28a:—

"28a—(1) No person shall—

I. Use any butter or other product of milk (except skim milk containing not more than one-tenth of one per centum of milk-fat) in the manufacture of margarine or any butter substitute:

II. Keep or have in his possession on any premises where margarine or any butter substitute is manufactured any quantity of butter exceeding five pounds in weight:

III. Sell, or offer or expose, or prepare, for sale, by retail, margarine or any butter substitute which contains milk-fat or any product of milk (except skim milk containing not more than one-tenth of one per centum of milk-fat):

IV. Use the word 'butter,' either alone or in conjunction with any other word, in the naming or description of any substance which is sold, or intended to be sold, as a butter substitute and is not a product of milk:

V. Mix, colour, or stain any butter substitute with any ingredient or material so as to imitate butter.

(2) For the purposes of this section, 'butter substitute' means any substance resembling butter which is intended to be used as a substitute for butter; and 'sale by retail' means sale in any quantity less than fourteen pounds at any one time.".
