ANNO QUADRAGESIMO-QUINTO
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,
No. 12.

AN ACT to amend "The Deceased Persons' Estates Act, 1874." A.D. 1881.
[8 November, 1881.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 Where any person has heretofore renounced, or shall hereafter renounce Probate of the Will of which he is appointed Executor or one of the Executors, the rights of such person in respect of the executorship shall wholly cease, and the representation of the Testator and the administration of his effects shall and may, without any further renunciation, go, devolve, and be committed in like manner as if such person had not been appointed Executor. Rights of an Executor renouncing Probate to cease as if he had not been named in the Will.

2 Every person who makes the affidavit mentioned in Section Four of "The Probate Duties Act" as to the value of the personal estate of any Testator or Intestate shall file at the same time an Inventory of all and singular the personal estate and effects of the deceased at the time of his death, with the estimated value assigned to each particular specified in such Inventory; and every such Inventory shall be verified by such affidavit. Person making affidavit under Sect. 4 of 32 Vict. No. 1 to attach Inventory of estate and value thereof.

3 This Act may be cited as "The Deceased Persons' Estates Act, 1881." Short title.
