Ibid., s. 4.Penalty for killing imported game.
Ibid., s. 5.3 In this Act, unless the context otherwise determines—

"Carcase" includes any part of a carcase :

"Crown land" means land which is or may become vested in the Crown, and which is not granted or lawfully contracted to be granted in fee simple ; and includes all land which is or may be held for mining, pastoral, or other purposes under any lease, licence, or other right, by or from the Crown, or any person on behalf of the Crown :

"District" means any municipality :

"Hunt" includes to kill, take, pursue, or capture in any manner whatsoever :

"Imported game" means and includes Wonga Wonga Pigeon (Leucosarcia picata), Pheasants, Partridges, and Grouse, whether the same are alive or dead, and any other bird or animal which the Governor by proclamation as hereinafter provided declares to be imported game :"Kangaroo" means the Brush and Forester Kangaroo of Tasmania, but does not include the Forester Kangaroo (Macropus major) :"Mutton Bird" means the Short-tailed Petrel (Puffinus tenuirostris) :

"Native game" means and includes Wild Ducks (other than Musk Ducks), Teal, Widgeon, Quail, Plover, Black Swans, Wattle Birds, Cape Barren Geese, Bronze-winged Pigeons, and Brush Bronze-winged Pigeons, whether such birds are alive or dead, and any other bird, whether such bird is alive or dead, which the Governor by proclamation as hereinafter provided shall declare to be native game :

"Opossum" includes every animal of the family Phalangerinae, of which the "Black Opossum" and the "Grey Opossum," are the best known representatives in Tasmania, but does not include the "Flying Squirrel" or "Opossum Mouse," nor the "Ringtailed Opossum" :

"Police magistrate" includes a stipendiary magistrate and the warden of a municipality :

"Quail" includes the bird usually called the Californian Quail :

"Tasmania" includes the dependencies thereof.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, by proclamation, to name any other bird or animal which shall be included in the term "imported game" or "native game ;" and after the publication of any such proclamation in the Gazette, and after the expiration of the period mentioned in such proclamation for the commencement thereof, the bird or animal so named shall be included in the term "imported game" or "native game," as the case may be.

Imported Game.

5 If any person kills or takes any imported game, or uses any dog, gun, net, snare, or other engine or instrument for the purpose of killing or taking any such game, he shall for every head of imported game so killed or taken, and for every such offence of so using any dog, gun, net, snare, or other engine or instrument, incur a penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds. A.D. 1907.

6 If any person buys or sells, or knowingly has in his house, possession, or control, any imported game, except live game kept or to be kept in a mew or breeding-place, every person shall, for every head of imported game so bought or sold, or found in his house, possession, or control, incur a penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds. Nothing herein contained shall extend to any dead imported game brought into this State. Possession of imported game illegal. Ibid., s. 6.

7 If any person wilfully takes out of the nest, or destroys in the nest, the eggs of any imported bird of game, or knowingly has in his house, possession, or control any such eggs, every such person shall for every egg so taken or destroyed, or so found in his house, possession, or control, incur a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; but this provision shall not extend to the owner of any mew or breeding-place for game in respect of eggs in or taken from the nest in such mew or breeding-place, or to any person in respect of any eggs taken from the nest and given to such person by such owner. Penalty for taking or destroying eggs of imported game. Ibid., s. 7.

Native Game.

8 The following shall be deemed to be the breeding seasons for native game; that is to say:— Breeding seasons of native game. Ibid., s. 8.

For Wild Ducks, Teal, Widgeon, Plover, and Black Swans, from the First day of July in every year to the last day of January in every succeeding year, both days inclusive:

For Capé Barren Geese, from the First day of June to the last day of December in each year:

For Bronze-winged Pigeons and Brush Bronze-winged Pigeons, from the First day of July in every year to the last day of February in every succeeding year, both days inclusive:

For Wattle Birds, from the First day of August in every year to the Thirtieth day of April in every succeeding year, both days inclusive:

For Quail, from the First day of July in every year to the Thirtieth day of April in every succeeding year, both days inclusive.

9 It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, by proclamation, to declare that any native game described in such proclamation shall not be killed, taken, or captured during any time, to be stated in such proclamation, in such parts of Tasmania as may be described and set forth in such proclamation; and every person acting in contravention of such proclamation shall be liable to the like penalty as if he had offended against the next section of this Act. Governor may prohibit the taking of native game during open season in certain places. Ibid., s. 9.

Game Protection.

magistrate or justices that any such animal or skin came into his control or possession before the commencement of this Act.

21 If any person in any manner hunts, sells, offers for sale, or has in his control or possession, either on his own land or elsewhere, any Kangaroo or Opossum, whether alive or dead, or any skin or carcase thereof, in the case of Kangaroo, at any time between the First day of August in any year and the Thirty-first day of March in any succeeding year, both days inclusive, and in the case of Opossums, at any time between the First day of August in any year and the Thirty-first day of May in any succeeding year, both days inclusive, which intervals are herein referred to as "the close season," he shall for every head of Kangaroo or Opossum so hunted, sold, offered for sale, or in his control or possession, and for every skin or carcase of Kangaroo or Opossum in his control or possession, forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than One Pound and not exceeding Two Pounds, and shall, in addition to any such penalty, forfeit every such skin or carcase, which shall thereupon become the property of the Crown.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from having or keeping Kangaroo or Opossums in a state of confinement, provided the same are not taken or captured in the close season.

No person prosecuted for selling, offering for sale, or having in his control or possession any Kangaroo or Opossum, or skin or carcase thereof, contrary to this section shall be liable to any penalty if such person proves to the satisfaction of the adjudicating police magistrate or justices that such Kangaroo or Opossum, or that the Kangaroo or Opossum from which such skin or carcase was taken, was lawfully hunted at any other time than within the close season.

Nothing in this section contained shall prevent any person during the close season killing any Kangaroo or Opossum upon his own land for the bona fide protection of his own crops; but the skin of any Kangaroo or Opossum so killed shall be the property of the Crown.

Justice may
warrant.

22—(1.) If any member of the police force has reasonable cause to suspect that there is in or on any land, or in or on any place (whether a building or not, or a carriage, vehicle, boat, or ship), any Kangaroo, Wallaby, Deer, or Opossum, or any skin or carcase thereof, in contravention of this Act, or in respect whereof any offence against this Act may have been committed, he may, if expressly authorised in that behalf by a warrant of a justice, by virtue of such warrant enter at any time, and if needs be by force, the said land or place, and every part thereof, and examine and search the same, and seize and carry away any Kangaroo, Wallaby, Deer, or Opossum, or any skin or carcase thereof, there found and reasonably supposed to be there in contravention of this Act.

(2.) A justice may, in his discretion, upon information laid, and reasonable cause of suspicion assigned upon oath or affirmation, by any such member of the police force, grant and issue the said warrant to a member of the police force.

Game Protection.

(3.) Every Kangaroo, Wallaby, Deer, and Opossum, and every skin and carcase thereof, so seized shall, if it be shown to the satisfaction of a justice—

- i. That no owner thereof is forthcoming : or
- ii. That an offence against this Act has been committed concerning the same—be forfeited, and thereupon become the property of the Crown.

Licences.

23—(1.) No person—

- i. Shall kill, take, or capture any Mutton Bird, unless he holds a licence for that purpose :
- ii. Shall hunt Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossums, except in the prescribed manner :
- iii. Shall hunt Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossums on any Crown land, unless he is the holder of a licence for that purpose extending to such land :
- iv. Not being the owner or occupier of the land, shall hunt Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossums on any land which is not Crown land, unless he has the written permission, previously given, of the owner or occupier of such land.

Penalty : Ten Pounds.

(2.) Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to authorise any person holding such licence to go upon land occupied by or belonging to any other person, and which is not Crown land, without the consent of such lastmentioned person, for the purpose of killing, taking, or capturing any Mutton Bird, or hunting Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossum.

24 Every licence for any of the purposes mentioned in the immediately preceding section shall be in the prescribed form, and may be issued by any person authorised by the Commissioner of Crown Lands to issue such licences, to such person as he sees fit ; and such licence shall be in force in the district named or described in such licence, and not elsewhere, for the period named.

No person to take, &c., Mutton Birds, or hunt Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossums, unless he holds a licence, &c.
59 Vict. No. 26, s. 21.

25 Every person shall, upon the demand of any constable or of the occupier of any Crown land, or his servant or agent, whereon such person shall be killing, taking or capturing Mutton Birds, or attempting so to do, or hunting Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossums, as the case may be, produce and show a licence issued to such person under this Act.

Penalty : Five Pounds.

Mode of issuing and duration of licence.
5 Ed. VII. No. 38, s. 5.

26 Any person who keeps or intends to keep a pack of hounds for hunting Kangaroo or Deer for the purpose of recreation may receive from the Commissioner of Crown Lands, or any person authorised by him to issue the same, a licence in the prescribed form, which such Commissioner or person may in his discretion grant upon payment of the prescribed fee, and which shall remain in force for the period therein named ; and such licence shall exempt the person to whom the same

Licence not to authorise holder to hunt during close season.
59 Vict. No. 26, s. 26.

28 Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to authorise any person holding any licence issued under this Act to kill, take, or capture Mutton Birds, except during the prescribed time nor to hunt Kangaroo or Opossums during the close season prescribed for the same respectively.

Licences continued.
59 Vict. No. 26, s. 27.

29 All licences for hunting Kangaroo or Opossums issued under any Act hereby repealed, and in force when this Act takes effect, shall, unless forfeited as herein provided in the meantime, remain in force until the expiration thereof by effluxion of time.

Licence forfeited by conviction of holder.
59 Vict. No. 26, s. 28.

30 If any person shall, whilst holding a licence to hunt Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossums, issued under any Act hereby repealed or this Act, be convicted of any offence against any provision in such Acts relating to Kangaroo, Deer, or Opossums, such licence shall thereupon be forfeited and void.

Miscellaneous.

Regulations.

31—(1.) The Governor may from time to time make regulations for the following purposes or any of them ; that is to say :—

- i. For the protection of Mutton Birds :
- ii. Prescribing the time during which and the purpose for which the Mutton Bird may be killed or captured :
