Power to make
By-laws.

5 Wherever the Council is by virtue of the Principal Act, or any provision thereof, authorised or empowered to make By-laws for or in respect of Slaughter-houses, Markets, or for any other special purpose, or in regard to any particular matter, such By-laws may be made by the Council in manner provided by the Principal Act; and by such By-laws the Council may direct that a penalty not exceeding the amount mentioned in the Principal Act in respect of such special purpose or matter may be imposed for the breach of such By-law anything in Section Two hundred and seventy-four of the Principal Act notwithstanding.

Holder of Butcher's Licence may employ slaughterman.

6 A Butcher's Licence, granted under the Principal Act for the slaughter and sale of animals, shall not entitle any person, other than the person to whom the same is issued, to slaughter thereunder; but, if any person holding a Butcher's Licence is desirous of employing any competent slaughterman or butcher to slaughter for him at the public slaughterhouse, he may obtain a Slaughtering Licence for such person, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

How Slaughtering Licence to be obtained.

7 Every such Slaughtering Licence shall be granted by the Mayor, on the certificate of the Inspector of Stock that the person proposed to be licensed is a fit and competent person to hold such licence. Such licence may be in the form contained in the Schedule, and shall, without reference to the time when the same is granted, be in force until the Thirty-first day of December then next ensuing the granting thereof, and no longer.

Fixing fee.

8 The Mayor is hereby authorised to charge and receive for every such Licence a sum not exceeding One Pound as for the time being in that behalf is fixed by the Council.

Penalty for slaughtering or selling without licence.

9 Every person who slaughters any animal, or sells the carcase of any animal, without having obtained a Butcher's Licence or a Slaughtering Licence, to be obtained as in the principal Act, and in this Act directed, enabling him to slaughter or sell, or to slaughter only, as the case may be, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, and the amount of such penalty may be recovered from the person committing any such offence in manner provided by Section Three hundred and ten of "The Hobart Corporation Act, 1893," on information or complaint, to be made by the Inspector of Stock, or any officer appointed by the Council.

Provision as to keeping pigs.

10 No person shall keep any pig within the Public Slaughter House, in any place or pen adjoining the Scalding House in such Slaughter House, for a longer period than Four hours.

Removal of cattle from sale-yard.

11 The purchaser of any cattle, or in event of the same not being sold, the owner or person placing the same in the Public Slaughter House, shall, within Four hours of the close of the sale at which the same shall be offered for sale, remove the same from the selling yard of pen to the keeping yard or pen, and failing so to do shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and the Inspector may, on default of the person liable, effect such removal himself. A.D. 1901

12 It shall be lawful for the Council to establish and maintain yards outside the boundary of the Public Slaughter-house and adjoining thereto, or at any place within the City of Hobart and the area around the City within a distance of One mile from any part of the boundary of the City for the sale therein by auction or privately, and for inspection of any animals not being imported animals put or placed therein, and to charge and impose fees for the use of such yards and for the inspection and sale of the animals exposed for sale therein. Council may establish sale-yards.

13 It shall be lawful for the Council to make, publish, alter, modify, amend, or repeal such By-laws as to the said Council seems meet for the proper ordering, conduct, management, control, supervision, and cleansing of such sale-yards, and the inspection of animals therein: for the fixing of the rates, charges, and fees to be taken and paid for the use of such sale-yards in respect of the inspection and sale of animals therein. Power to make By-laws for sale-yards.

And it shall be lawful for the Council to appoint by such By-laws such penalties not exceeding in any case the sum of Ten Pounds, as the said Council deems necessary for enforcing such By-laws.

14 It shall be lawful for the Council in manner provided by and in accordance with the provisions of the principal Act, to make, publish, alter, modify, amend, or repeal such By-laws as to the said Council seems meet:— By-laws providing sale-yards, and regulating erection of verandahs, and fixing penalties.

- i. For the proper ordering, conduct, management, control, supervision, and cleansing of sale-yards, authorised by this Act to be established by the Council, and the inspection of animals placed in or sold at such sale-yards:
- ii. For the fixing of the rates, charges, and fees, to be taken and paid for the use of such sale-yards in respect of the inspection and sale of animals therein:
- iii. For regulating the erection or construction of any verandah, portico, balcony, sign-board, hoarding, post, step, gate, or similar construction, matter, or thing, in, upon, across, or along any street, roadway, or footpath, within the City of Hobart:
- iv. For preventing the placing of any verandah, portico, balcony, sign-board, hoarding, post, step, gate, or similar construction, matter, or thing, in, upon, across, or along, any street, roadway, or footpath, within the City of Hobart, without the consent of the Council, and for the removal thereof; and to appoint by such By-laws such penalties, not exceeding in any case the sum of Ten Pounds, as the said Council deems necessary for enforcing such By-laws, or for any breach thereof.

Hobart Corporation.

A.D. 1901.

By-laws to apply to future
slaughter-houses.

15 All By-laws now or hereafter in force relating to the public Slaughter-house now established under the principal Act shall apply to any public Slaughter-house hereafter established by the Council wherever situate, in addition to or in substitution for the public Slaughter-house existing at the date of this Act, so far as such By-laws are applicable to such additional or substituted Slaughter-house.

Validating existing By-laws.

16 All existing By-laws heretofore made and published under and by virtue of the Principal Act in connection with the slaughter of animals and sale of meat, and all existing tables and scales of fees heretofore made and published thereunder and with reference thereto are hereby declared to be valid, and shall remain in full force until the same or any of them shall be revoked, rescinded, or otherwise altered by the Council

Amendment of Section 13 of 57 Vict. No. 11.

17 The words "owner or" are hereby inserted before the word "occupier" in the third line of Section Thirteen of the principal Act.

Power to expend money on recreation ground, &c., outside the City.

18 It shall be lawful for the Council from time to time to appropriate out of the revenues of the Corporation such sum or sums of money as the Council shall think proper, not exceeding One hundred Pounds per annum, for and towards the improvement of any recreation ground, pleasure resort, or public reserve adjoining the City of Hobart.
