3 The Hobart Corporation Act, 1930, is hereby amended as follows:—

I. By inserting after Section One hundred and sixteen the following new section :—

“ 116a—(1) It shall be lawful for the Council to fill up and raise above the level of high water, and so to reclaim that portion of the River Derwent along the Maryville Esplanade comprising an area of thirteen acres one rood eighteen and two-tenth perches or thereabouts and shown approximately on a plan signed by the Mayor of Hobart and the Master Warden of the Hobart Marine Board and by the President of the Legislative Council and the Speaker of the House of Assembly respectively, and intended to be deposited with the Minister for Lands and Works, and in the said plan surrounded by red boundary lines.

“(2) The reclaimed land and such portions of the foreshore as are shown in the said plan shall be vested by the Governor absolutely in the Corporation as a city recreation ground, and shall be granted by the Crown to the Corporation in fee simple, free from all claims on the part of the Crown.

“(3) The reclaimed land and foreshore, when so granted as last aforesaid, shall be included within the boundaries of the City of Hobart as set forth in Schedule (2) to the Hobart Corporation Act, 1929, and shall be and become a city recreation ground within the meaning and for the purpose of Part VIII. of the Hobart Corporation Acts, 1929-1933.

A.D. 1933.

“ (4) The Council may reserve any part of the reclaimed land and foreshore for streets or public places, or in connection with the outlet of the Wellington Rivulet and of any other rivulet or stream, and may lay out, and set up, and maintain such streets, public places, and all public conveniences in connection therewith as the Council may deem proper. Reservations may be made.”

“ (5) If the Marine Board of Hobart shall at any time hereafter require access to the water front across the reclaimed land for the purposes of the Marine Act, 1921, or any other Act conferring powers upon the said Board, the Council shall construct all such roads and footpaths as may be considered necessary by the said Board for such purposes, and the expense of such construction shall be borne equally by the Board and the Council.” :

II. By inserting after Section One hundred and eighty-eight the following new section :— New Section 188a.

“ 188a All premises upon which there has been set up or used, or upon which it is intended that there shall be set up or used, any saw-bench or other machinery for sawing, splitting, or cutting wood shall be registered, and the provisions of Section One hundred and eighty-eight of the Hobart Corporation Act, 1930, excepting Sub-section (5) thereof, shall, in all respects, mutatis mutandis, apply thereto. Registration of saw-benches.”

III. As to Section Two hundred and sixty— Section 260.

By inserting the words “ or prohibiting ” after the word “ regulating ” in the first line of Paragraph xxxiii. thereof and by inserting the same words after the word “ controlling ” in the first line of Paragraph xxxiv. thereof.
