ANNO TRICESIMO-NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 4.

AN ACT to amend the Law as to the Contracts of Infants. A.D. 1875. [30 September, 1875.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law as to the contracts of Infants, and as to the ratification made by persons of full age of contracts made by them during infancy, and as to necessities: PREAMBLE.

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 All contracts, whether by specialty or by simple contract, henceforth entered into by Infants for the repayment of money lent or to be lent, or for goods supplied or to be supplied, (other than contracts for necessities), and all accounts stated with Infants, shall be absolutely void: but this enactment shall not invalidate any contract into which an Infant may, by any existing or future law, or by the rules of common law or equity, enter, except such as now by law are voidable. Contracts by Infants, except for necessities, to be void.

2 No action shall be brought whereby to charge any person upon any promise made after full age to pay any debt contracted during infancy, or upon any ratification made after full age of any promise or contract made during infancy, whether there shall or shall not be any new consideration for such promise or ratification after full age. No action to be brought on ratification of Infant's contract.

3 This Act may be cited as "The Infants Relief Act, 1875." Short title.
