AN ACT to further amend "The Launceston Corporation Act, 1894." [14 January, 1919.] A.D. 1918.

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend "The Launceston Corporation Act, 1894": PREAMBLE.

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Launceston Corporation Act Amendment Act, 1918, No. 2"

Launceston Corporation Amendment (No. 2).

A. D. 1918.

Interpretation.

2 In this Act, unless the context otherwise indicates—

“Animal” has the meaning assigned to it in Section One hundred and ninety-six of the Principal Act :

“The Corporation ” means the Mayor, Aldermen, and citizens of the City of Launceston :

“The Council ” means the Municipal Council of the City of Launceston :

“The Principal Act” means “The Launceston Corporation Act, 1894.”

Incorporation of land in city.

3 All that piece of land containing Two hundred and thirty-two acres One rood, situate in the Parish of Selby, County of Dorset, in Tasmania, lately purchased by the Corporation from Robert Scott, as delineated and described in Certificate of Title, Registered Volume CXIII, Folio Eighty, together with the One-half part adjoining the said land of the road extending from Hobbler’s Bridge to the eastern corner of the said land, a distance of Seventy-three chains or thereabouts on the north-western and north-eastern boundaries of the said land, shall from the time of the purchase thereof for all purposes be deemed to be within the boundaries of the City of Launceston ; but until the expiration or sooner determination of the existing lease from the said Robert Scott to David Cosman Imlach the lessee of the said land shall pay to the Corporation such and the like rates and taxes and charges as he would have paid to the Corporation or the Municipal Council of the Municipality of St. Leonards but for this section, and the same shall be added to the rent on the First day of March in each year, and be recoverable by the Corporation as and in the same manner as the rent of the said land due on the First day of March in each year, but the said lessee shall not be liable to pay any rates which he would not have been liable to pay but for this section.

Road subsidy may be paid notwithstanding incorporation.
6 Geo. V. No. 39.

4 Notwithstanding that such One-half part of the said road is deemed to be within the boundaries of the City of Launceston, where in any year or years a subsidy is payable to the Municipal Council of the Municipality of St. Leonards in accordance with “The Aid to Roads Rate Act, 1915,” or any amendment thereof, or any Act providing for help to municipalities or others in the constructing, repairing, renewing, improving, or maintaining of roads, and the Engineer-in-Chief informs the Minister of Lands and Works for the time being that any work requires to be done to the said road, the said Minister shall determine the portion of such subsidy to be expended on the part of the said road in the Municipality of St. Leonards, if any, adjoining the part of the said road in the City of Launceston, and in addition to the payment of the subsidies to the Municipal Councils of the various municipalities, there shall be paid to the Corporation a sum equal to the portion so determined out of the money authorised for subsidies in aid of road rates by any Appropriation Act or otherwise, in each such year, and the same shall be expended by the Corporation on the part of the said road in the city.

Launceston Corporation Amendment (No 2).

5 In addition to, but without in any way limiting the powers conferred upon the Corporation by the Principal Act or any amendments thereof or otherwise, the Corporation are hereby authorised from time to time to do all or any One or more of the following things with regard to the said piece of land :—

A D. 1918.

Powers of Corporation.

- i. To construct, provide, and maintain saleyards, pens, shelters, offices, roads, and other conveniences in connection with the same :
- ii. To provide and maintain a market-place or market-places for the sale of animals, carcasses of animals, meat, or any other things :
- iii. To construct and maintain roads, ramps, watercourses, dips, baths, reservoirs, disinfecting-rooms and places, water-troughs and drinking-places, and weighbridges :
- iv. To construct, provide, and maintain grazing paddocks for stock, sheds, and other conveniences, and to let the same or agist stock thereon as from time to time shall seem advisable :
- v. To construct, provide, appoint, establish, and maintain a public slaughterhouse or houses, and boiling-down places :
- vi. To construct, provide, and maintain freezing and cool-storage works, and to make provision for the storage of meat, fruit, and other perishable articles, and also for the delivery of same within the city or any suburbs thereof, or in any district adjoining the city or any suburb thereof by trams, by the purchase and in maintaining of motors, or in any other ways :
- vii. To construct and maintain dwellings and residences for officers and employees of the Corporation, with all appurtenances thereto; stables and sheds for horses or animals; workshops, sheds, garages, and other buildings as shall from time to time be desirable :
- viii. To instal, work, and maintain all implements, machinery, lighting, and power which may be deemed advisable in connection with any of the above things ;

And to do all other things which the Corporation shall deem necessary or advantageous for the sale of animals, slaughtering of animals, the handling of carcasses and offal, storage of meat and other things, and the transport of same.

6 If and while and so long and so far as any portions of the said land may not be required for any of the purposes above set out, the Corporation may sell or let the same as to the Council shall seem expedient.

Sale and lease.
See Sections 12
and 270 of 58
Vict. No. 30.

7 The Corporation may from time to time let the saleyards and their appurtenances or any part or parts thereof and charge tolls in respect of the use of the same or any part thereof, or enter into any contracts, or make any other arrangements with regard to the use thereof as to the Council shall seem fit.

Arrangement as to saleyards.

Launceston Corporation Amendment (No. 2).

A.D. 1918.

When saleyards provided, sales to be there.

8 As soon as the Corporation have provided saleyards on the said piece of land and made arrangements for the use thereof, public sales by auction of animals may be held there, but no public sale by auction of any fat-stock shall, except as hereinafter provided, be had or held at any place within a radius of Three miles from the General Post Office, Launceston, other than at the said saleyards, or at some place within the city, in accordance with Section Two hundred and twenty-two of the Principal Act.

Provided always that it shall be lawful to hold sales by auction of animals at an agricultural showground during or immediately after a show.

Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Mayor at any time in writing to grant permission to hold sales by auction of animals—

- i. At property when a general clearing out sale is to be held there, and at such clearing out sale the sale of animals belonging to people other than the person whose clearing out sale it is may be permitted :
- ii. At any place when it seems expedient to the Mayor so to do on account of any particular circumstances.

Every person holding any sale, and every person owning any animal to be put up for sale, or purchasing any animal at any sale held contrary to the provisions of this section, shall forfeit and pay a penalty or sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Power to borrow.
See Section 197 of
58 Vict. No. 30.

9 It shall be lawful for the Corporation from time to time to borrow and take up at interest the sum of Ten thousand Pounds paid for the purchase of the said piece of land, and such further sum or sums of money not exceeding, with the said sum of Ten thousand Pounds, the sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds, as shall by the Council be deemed requisite for doing any or all of the things mentioned in Section Five hereof, or for any other purpose or purposes mentioned in Section Three of "The Launceston General Purposes Loans Act, 1916," in addition to the sum of Sixty thousand Pounds mentioned in the said Section Three.

7 Geo. V. No. 10.

And "The Launceston General Purposes Loans Act, 1916," shall be read and construed as if the total amount thereby authorised to be borrowed was Eighty-five thousand Pounds instead of Sixty thousand Pounds, and the payment of the said purchase money of Ten thousand Pounds, and the doing of the things mentioned in the said Section Five hereof are hereby declared to be things necessary or expedient for the purposes of the city or for the benefit or improvement thereof.

Sections 199 and 200 of 58 Vict.
No. 30, and Section 6 of 2 Ed.
VII. No. 15, not to apply to Hutton's Bacon Factory.

10 Sections One hundred and ninety-nine and Two hundred of the Principal Act and Section Six of "The Launceston Corporation Act, 1902," shall not prohibit or prevent J. C. Hutton Pty. Ltd, from slaughtering pigs or cattle for manufacturing purposes at the bacon factory of the said company, although the same is within One mile of the boundary of the said piece of land, and no butcher's licence or slaughtering licence from the Corporation shall be necessary for or required by the said company or the employees of the said company to enable the said company to slaughter at the said factory for the purposes of the said factory, but such factory shall still remain in the district of St. Leonards for the purposes of "The Police Act, 1905." A.D. 1918.

11 It shall be lawful for the Council from time to time to employ slaughtermen and others, and by notice under the hand of the Mayor, to be published as in the case of a notice published under Section Two hundred and three of the Principal Act, to fix and declare the rates or sums to be paid to the Council for the slaughtering and dressing of animals by such slaughtermen and others, and the rates and sums so to be paid shall be paid in the same manner as the rates or sums payable for slaughtering under the said Section Two hundred and three. Council may slaughter. See Section 203 of 58 Vic. No. 20.

The Council may, by a like notice published as aforesaid, declare that no persons except such slaughtermen and others employed by the Council shall slaughter or dress any animal, and thereupon no animal shall be slaughtered or dressed at any public slaughterhouse except by such employees.
