AN ACT to amend "The Local Government Act, 1906." A.D. 1923.
[12 April, 1923.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as "The Local Government Act, Short title. 1923."

(2) "The Local Government Act, 1906," is herein called "the Principal Act." Principal Act,
6 Ed. VII. No.
31.

4d.]

Local Government.

A.D. 1923.

Amendment of Section 84 of
Principal Act.
Procedure if voting equal.

2 Section Eighty-four of the Principal Act is hereby amended by expunging Subsection (2) thereof, and substituting the following new Subsection (2) therefor:—

“(2) In the event of Two or more candidates obtaining an equal number of votes at any election, such candidates shall, if one additional vote for any one of them would have entitled him to be declared elected, in the presence and under the direction of the presiding officer, determine by lot which of them shall be declared elected.”

Amendment of Section 92 of
Principal Act.

3 Section Ninety-two of the Principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) By adding at the end of Paragraph iv. thereof the following proviso:—

“Provided that in the event of any regulation being made by the Governor in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (3) of Section Fifty-one of this Act, no election to fill an extraordinary vacancy shall be held on the same day as an annual election for the same ward while any such regulation is in force:

(b) By expunging Paragraph vi. thereof, and substituting the following new Paragraph vi. therefor:—

“vi. When any extraordinary vacancy or vacancies is or are to be filled at the time of an annual election, the elected candidate or candidates, as the case may be, who obtained the smallest number of votes shall be deemed to have been elected to fill such vacancy or vacancies. And if the number of candidates nominated does not exceed the number of councillors to be elected at such election, a candidate who has gone out of office by rotation on the day appointed for such annual election, shall be deemed to have been elected to fill the vacancy caused by his retirement; and if there be no such candidate the candidates who shall be deemed to have been elected to fill the ordinary and extraordinary vacancies respectively, shall be determined by lot.”

Amendment of Section 125 of
Principal Act.

4 Section One hundred and twenty-five of the Principal Act is hereby amended by inserting therein, after Subsection (3), the following new Subsection (4):—

“(4) In any case in which the moneys of a council are paid by the collector in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (6) of Section One hundred and twenty-four, such council shall not be required to take security under this section from its treasurer.”

Amendment of Section 158 of
Principal Act.

5 Section One hundred and fifty-eight of the Principal Act is hereby amended by substituting a comma for the period at the end thereof, and by adding thereto the words, “or may invest the same in Commonwealth or State Bonds or Inscribed Stock.”

Local Government.

6 The Principal Act is hereby amended by inserting therein, in place of the repealed Section One hundred and eighty-one, the following new Section 181—

“181—(1) It shall be lawful for any council, by special resolution, to provide that a rebate not exceeding Two Pounds Ten Shillings per centum shall be allowed on all rates paid to the council within One month after payment of the same has been demanded as hereinbefore provided.

(2) It shall be lawful for any council, by special resolution, to provide that there shall be payable in respect of all rates unpaid for a space of Four months after payment of the same has been demanded as aforesaid, a penalty not exceeding Two Pounds Ten Shillings per centum of the amount so unpaid.”

7 Section Two hundred and five of the Principal Act is hereby amended by inserting therein after Paragraph xi. of subdivision (12) thereof the following new Paragraph xii:—

“xii. Providing that all itinerant canvassers for orders, whether for goods to be supplied or work to be done, who take payments in advance in respect thereof, shall be licensed; for the conditions to be imposed and the fees to be paid in respect of the issuing of licenses to such persons; and for the granting and cancellation of such licenses.”

8—(1) The council of any municipality may enter into an agreement with a duly qualified medical practitioner, and may pay to him a special fee or retainer to practise in such municipality upon such terms and conditions as the Council may determine.

(2) The council may make and levy a special rate for the purpose of providing for the payment to such medical practitioner of such fee or retainer as aforesaid.
