

TASMANIA.

1920.

ANNO UNDECIMO

GEORGII V. REGIS,

No. 9.

ANALYSIS.

- 1. Short title and incorporation.
- 2. Amendment of Section 15d.
- 3. Retrospective effect.

AN ACT to further amend "The Medical Act, 1918." A.D. 1920.
[15 November, 1920.] —

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Medical Act, 1920," and shall be incorporated and read as one with "The Medical Act, 1918," in this Act referred to as the Principal Act. Short title and incorporation. 9 Geo. V. No. 71.

Medical Amendment.

A.D. 1920.

Amendment of Section 15d.

2 Section 15d of the Principal Act is amended by adding, after the words "registered person" in the Eighteenth line thereof, the following further provisoes :—

"Provided, further, that in the case of any person whose name has been registered under this Act, and prior to the passing of this Act, no application shall be made under this section for the removal of the name of such person from the Register on any of the grounds mentioned in Paragraph i. or Paragraph iii. unless the matter complained of occurred within Seven years of the time of making such application, nor on any of the grounds mentioned in Paragraph ii. unless the offence, in respect of which such person was convicted, was committed within the like period."

"Provided, also, that no person shall be deemed guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect by reason only of his practising as a medical practitioner with the knowledge of any matter concerning his registration, or his application or qualification therefor, unless such matter occurred within Seven years of the time of application for the removal of his name from the register."

Retrospective effect.
6 Ed. VII. No.
12.

3 The Principal Act shall be read and construed in all respects as if Section 15d, as amended by this Act, had been inserted in the Principal Act at the time of the commencement thereof; and no provision of "The Interpretation Act, 1906," or of any amendment thereof, or of any other Act, shall in any way affect or limit the operation of the express provisions of this section and Section Two of this Act.