AN ACT to amend "The Maintenance Act, 1921." A.D. 1924.
[2 December, 1924.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Maintenance Act, 1924." Short title.

2—(1) The provisions of Part IV. of "The Maintenance Act, 1921," shall apply to maintenance orders made in the Dominion of New Zealand, and provisional orders against persons resident therein, and to all proceedings in respect thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the said Dominion had been therein mentioned, in addition to England and Ireland. Extension of Part IV. of 12 Geo. V. No. 40 to New Zealand and other British possessions.

Maintenance.

A. D. 1924.

(2) In the application of the said provisions under this section, the expression "Secretary of State" shall be deemed to refer to the Governor-General of the said Dominion.

(3) In any case in which the Governor is satisfied that the legislature of any British possession or territory has made reciprocal provisions for the enforcement in such possession or territory of maintenance orders made under Part IV. aforesaid, the Governor may, by proclamation, declare that the provisions of that Part shall apply in respect of that possession or territory in like manner as the same apply in respect of England and Ireland, and thereupon the same shall apply accordingly.

Repeal of Section
46 of 12 Geo. V.
No. 40.

3 Section Forty-six of "The Maintenance Act, 1921," is hereby repealed.

Insertion of Section 64a in 12 Geo. V. No.
40.

Order may be made on employer for payment of salary or wages
of defendant against whom maintenance order has been made, and who is in default.

4 After Section Sixty-four of "The Maintenance Act, 1921," the following Section 64a is hereby inserted:—

"64a—(1) If any defendant against whom a maintenance order has been made is in default in compliance therewith, any justice may issue a summons calling upon any person in whose employ the defendant is alleged to be to show cause why an order should not be made under this section.

"(2) Upon the hearing of such summons the court may, upon proof of such employment, order the employer to pay to some person authorised by the court to receive the same from time to time, such proportion of the salary or wages due, or to accrue due, to the defendant as the court may think fit.

"(3) Any such order may be made to have effect so long as such maintenance order remains in force, or for such shorter period as the court may direct.

"(4) If such employer fails to comply with such order, the same may be enforced against him in manner provided by Section Sixty-three of this Act.

"(5) Any such order may be altered, varied, or discharged by the court on the application of any party affected thereby.

"(6) All moneys recovered under this section shall be appropriated for the use of the person on whose behalf the maintenance order was made"
