AN ACT to further amend "The Marine Boards Act, 1889," to amend "The Marine Boards Act Amendment Act, 1910," and for other purposes. [10 January, 1912.]

A.D. 1911.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Marine Boards Act Amendment Act, 1911," and shall be construed as one with "The Marine Boards Act, 1889" (hereinafter called "the Principal Act"), and every amend-

Short title and incorporation with 53 Vict. No. 34.

Marine Board Amendment.

A.D. 1911.

Repeal and re-enactment of Section 61 of Principal Act, and repeal of Section 2 of 5 Ed. VII. No. 36.

Moneys received for purposes of Act to be paid to board within whose jurisdiction same paid or levied, and to be applied to purposes of Act.

Proviso empowering marine board to pay certain sums for purposes not authorised by Act.

2 Section Sixty-one of the Principal Act and Section Two of "The Marine Boards Amendment Act, 1905," are hereby repealed, and the following section is hereby substituted for Section Sixty-one aforesaid :—

"61 All sums of money whatsoever, other than lighthouse rates, by this Act or any amendment thereof directed to be paid to an officer appointed as collector by a board for the purposes of this Act shall be paid over by such officer to the board within whose jurisdiction the same were paid or levied; and such moneys shall be applied by the board to and for the purposes and objects of this Act or any amendment thereof, and shall be funds at its disposal for such purposes.

"Provided that any marine board may in any financial year out of its said funds expend any sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the whole—

- I. In the case of the Marine Board of Hobart, the sum of Two hundred Pounds :
- II. In the case of the Marine Board of Launceston, the sum of One hundred Pounds :
- III. In the case of any other marine board, the sum of Twenty-five Pounds—for any purposes whatsoever approved of by the board; and it shall not be incumbent on the board to apply any such sum or sums in carrying out the purposes and objects of this Act; but any such expenditure must be sanctioned by a Two-thirds majority of the wardens present."

Amendment of Section 6 of 1 Geo V. No. 24.

3 Section Six of "The Marine Boards Act Amendment Act, 1910," is hereby amended by omitting the words "One hundred and fifty Pounds" from Subsection (2) of that section, and substituting therefor the words "Two hundred and twenty-five Pounds."

Gratuity to officer.

4 On the resignation or death of any officer or servant appointed or employed by any marine board, or on or before the cessation or abolition of the office or employment of any such officer or servant, or the termination of his services, the board may by resolution grant and cause to be paid to such officer or servant, or to such of his surviving relations or dependants as the board may think fit, any gratuity or sum of money which to the board may seem fit.

The board's power under this section shall also extend and be deemed to have extended to any case where the resignation or death of the officer or servant, or the cessation or abolition of the office or employment, or the termination of the service, shall have occurred before the commencement of this Act.

Power to remit charges where vessel upon voyage of bona fide scientific research.

5 The boards respectively are hereby empowered to remit all or any portion of any port charges, port, pilotage, and harbour dues whatsoever payable in respect of any vessel arriving at or departing from any port within the jurisdiction of the boards respectively which they are of opinion is engaged in a voyage of bona fide scientific research not undertaken for the purpose of pecuniary gain.

Marine Board Amendment.

The Marine Board of Hobart is hereby empowered to remit, in the like case, all or any of the lighthouse dues payable in respect of any such vessel. A.D. 1911.

In this section the expression "the boards" includes "harbour trusts."

6 Section One hundred and thirty-five of the Principal Act, as re-enacted by Section Two of "The Marine Boards Act Amendment Act, 1908," is hereby amended by inserting the following provision at the end thereof:—

Power to Governor to lend £8500.

"It shall be lawful for the Governor to grant, in accordance with the provisions of 'The Local Public Works Loans Act, 1890,' any sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the whole Eight thousand five hundred Pounds (being portion of the said sum of Thirty thousand Pounds which the said marine board is by this section authorised to borrow), as a loan to the said marine board, upon the security of all its rates, funds, and property, for any of the purposes mentioned in this section approved by the Governor, and for any other purposes, whether of a similar description or not, approved by the Governor; and any such sum shall be defrayed out of moneys to be provided by Parliament for that purpose: Provided that it shall not be necessary to lay before either House of Parliament plans and specifications of any proposed work, nor the report of the Engineer-in-Chief thereon, as provided in Section Two of the said lastmentioned Act; but before any part of any such loan as aforesaid shall be advanced to the Council, a report by the Engineer-in-Chief upon the proposed expenditure, and upon such other matters as he may deem it desirable to refer to, together with plans and specifications of any works (if required by the Engineer-in-Chief), shall be submitted to and be subject to approval by the Governor."
