ANNO QUADRAGESIMO-NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 3.

AN ACT to confer upon Persons engaged in Mining increased facilities for mining for Tin, and to amend "The Mineral Lands Act, 1884." [7 September, 1885.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 The expression "Claim" used in "The Mineral Lands Act, 1884," shall extend to and include the portion of land which each person, mining partnership, or company is entitled to occupy, or to occupy and mine and work under the provisions of this Act. Interpretation of "Claim." 47 Vict. No. 10.

2 The provisions of this Act relating to mining for Tin in alluvial deposit shall apply only to such portions of Tasmania as the Governor in Council may from time to time extend the same by Proclamation published in the Hobart Gazette. Application of Act.

3 Any person, mining partnership, or company who shall be the holder of a Miner's Right or Consolidated Miner's Right under "The Gold Fields Regulation Act, 1880," shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Regulations made under the said Act or under this Act, be entitled, when mining for Tin in alluvial deposit, to all the privileges conferred by the said Act upon the holder of a Miner's Miner's Right to entitle the holder to mine for Tin. 44 Vict. No. 16.

Mineral Lands Amendment.

A.D. 1885.

Right or Consolidated Miner's Right thereunder, in the same manner in all respects as if the expression "Gold" used in the said Act extended to and included the mineral Tin in alluvial deposit.

Regulations under 44 Vict. No. 16 to apply.

4 All Regulations now in force or hereafter made under "The Gold Fields Regulations Act, 1880," shall apply to claims taken up and held under Miners' Rights and Consolidated Miners' Rights under and by virtue of the provisions of this Act, so far as such Regulations shall be applicable thereto.

Regulations may be made under this Act.

5 It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to make such additional Regulations as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect; and any such Regulations may be altered and rescinded from time to time.

Disposal of buildings, &c. when lease forfeited. 47 Vict. No. 10.

6 Upon the publication of any such notice mentioned in Section Thirty-five of "The Mineral Lands Act, 1884," all buildings, mining plant, and machinery erected and being on the land described in the lease which has been declared void and forfeited under the provisions of the said Act shall vest in Her Majesty, but may be removed therefrom by the late lessee or any person interested in such lease with the consent of the Governor in Council.

The provisions of this Section shall be applicable to all buildings, mining plant, and machinery erected and being on the land described in any lease which has been declared void and forfeited before the commencement of this Act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any enactment repealed by this Act.

Repeal. 47 Vict. No. 10.

7 Sections Thirty, Thirty-one, Thirty-two, and Thirty-six of "The Mineral Lands Act, 1884," are hereby repealed.

Acts to be read together.

8 "The Mineral Lands Act, 1884," as amended by this Act, and this Act, shall be read and construed together as one Act.

Short title.

9 This Act may be cited as "The Mineral Lands Amendment Act, 1885."
