ANNO SECUNDO

EDWARDI VII. REGIS,

No. 13.

AN ACT to regulate the Advertising of Proclamations and Government Notices in certain cases. [1 November, 1902.]

A.D. 1902.

WHEREAS it is required by various Acts that certain Proclamations, Rules, Regulations, and Government Notices should be published in any newspaper or newspapers :

PREAMBLE.

And whereas it is desirable that in lieu of publishing in detail such Proclamations, Rules, Regulations, and Government Notices in such newspaper or newspapers, that notice giving the purport and object should only be so published :

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled as follows :—

1 This Act may be cited as “ The Official Documents Publication Act, 1902.”

Short title.

2 Where in any Act, passed either before or after the commencement of this Act, it is enacted that any Proclamation, Rule, Regulation, or Government Notice shall be published in any newspaper or newspapers, it shall be sufficient if such Proclamation, Rule, Regulation, or

Publication of Proclamations.

4d.]

Official Documents Publication.

A.D. 1902.

Government Notice be published in the Hobart Gazette, and a notification under the hand of a Minister of the Crown be published in such newspaper or newspapers, giving the purport and object of such Proclamation, Rule, Regulation, or Government Notice, and stating the date of the publication of such Proclamation, Rule, Regulation, or Government Notice in the Hobart Gazette.

Saving as to manner and number of times
of publication.

3 Subject to the provisions of this Act, every such notification shall be advertised in the same manner and for the same number of times as such Proclamations, Rules, Regulations, and Government Notices are by law required to be published.
