Public Service Amendment.

A.D. 1919.

Repeal and re-enactment of Section 94 of Principal Act. Certain officers of age of Seventy may be continued in Public Service by Governor. Com., s. 75. Tas., s. 66.

2 Section Ninety-four of the Principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor :—

“94 Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding Section, any officer who has attained the age of Sixty-seven years, at the commencement of this Act, if the Commissioner certifies that in the interests of the Public Service it is desirable that such officer should continue in the performance of the duties of his office or of any office in the Public Service to which he may be appointed after attaining the age of Seventy years, and that such officer is able and willing to do so, the Governor may from time to time direct such officer to continue in the Service for such fixed time as the Governor in each case directs, or during pleasure, but in no case shall any such officer continue in the Service after attaining the age of Seventy-five years.”
