2 The following sub-heading and section are inserted immediately after Section Ten of "The Returned Soldiers' Settlement Act, 1916":—

Recovery of Possession of Land on Forfeiture of Lease.

Where lease forfeited or surrendered possession of land may be recovered under "The Recovery of Possession of Tenements Act, 1901."

1 Ed.VII. No. 20.

"10a—(1) Where the lease of any land disposed of by way of lease to a discharged soldier under this Act (whatever may be the term of such lease) has been forfeited or surrendered under any regulation, possession of such land may be recovered by the Minister on behalf of His Majesty under 'The Recovery of Possession of Tenements Act, 1901' (in this section called 'the said Act'), and for the purposes of the said Act the Minister shall be deemed to be the landlord and the lessee the tenant of such land.

(2) Upon the hearing of any complaint under the said Act in respect of any such land as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court hearing the complaint, upon production of the lease of such land or a counterpart thereof executed by the lessee, and a copy of the 'Gazette' containing a notification of the forfeiture or surrender of such lease, and upon proof to the satisfaction of the Court of the lessee neglecting or refusing to deliver up possession of the land and of the service of the summons if the lessee shall not appear thereto, and without proof of any other matter, to make any such order with respect to such land as is referred to in Section Four of the said Act.

(3) Subject as hereinbefore mentioned, all the provisions of the said Act shall apply to the recovery of possession thereunder of any such land as aforesaid."
