ii. Any other lands which may be vested in, or granted, or devised to them, or held by them for the purposes of this Act, or any part of any such land—for other land, including an exchange in consideration of money paid for equality of exchange.

“(2) An exchange may be made subject to any stipulations whatsoever.

“(3) On an exchange any easement, right, or privilege, of any kind may be reserved or may be granted over or in relation to the land the Board exchanges or any part thereof; or other land, or an easement, right, or privilege, of any kind may be given or taken in exchange for land, or for any other easement, right, or privilege of any kind.

“(4) The Board may, with the consent of the Governor, apply any moneys received by the Board for equality of exchange for all or any of the following purposes:—

i. In payment to the Treasurer of the State of any moneys lent to the Board by the Government of the State, together with interest thereon:

ii. In payment of any other liabilities of the Board:

iii. In building upon or otherwise improving any land referred to in Paragraph i. or ii. of Subsection (1) of this section:

iv. In furnishing or fitting up any premises vested in or held by the Board.

“In so far as any money so received by the Board shall not be required or applied for the said purposes, the same shall be handed over by the Board to the Commissioners of the Public Debts Sinking Fund for investment, and shall be subject to the provisions of the proviso to Subsection (1) of Section Fifteen of the Principal Act.”
