WHEAT INDUSTRY STABILIZATION.

No. 25 of 1969.

AN ACT to amend the Wheat Industry Stabilization Act 1968. [5 December 1969.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Wheat Industry Stabilization Act 1969. Short title and citation.

(2) The Wheat Industry Stabilization Act 1968 is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Price to be paid for wheat.

2 Section fourteen of the Principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (5) thereof the following subsection:—

“(5A) The reference in subsection (5) of this section to costs of administration incurred by the Board shall be taken to include costs paid or reimbursed by the Board in connection with the administration of the law of this State or of any other State relating to wheat quotas.”.

3 After section fourteen of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted:—

seasons.

“14A—(1) The season that commenced on the first day of October 1969 is a quota season for the purposes of this Act.

“(2) The Governor, by proclamation notified in the Gazette before the first day of April in any of the years up to and including the year 1972, may declare that the season commencing on the next following first day of October is a quota season for the purposes of this Act.

Modification with respect to quota
seasons.

“14B—(1) In relation to a quota season, or a season that is not a quota season but immediately follows a quota season, section fourteen has effect as if references in that section to wheat of a season were references to wheat included in the pool for that season in accordance with the provisions of this section.

“(2) The pool for a quota season (in this subsection referred to as ‘the relevant season’) consists of the following wheat delivered to the Board (whether in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or of a law of the Commonwealth or of another State), namely:—

- (a) Wheat (whether of the relevant season or of an earlier quota season) delivered during the relevant season or an earlier quota season and appearing from the records of the Board to be the whole or a part of a quota that is applicable in relation to a person in respect of the relevant season under the Wheat Quotas Act 1969 or a corresponding law of another State providing for the fixing of wheat quotas;
- (b) Any other wheat, being wheat of the relevant season, that is delivered to the Board during the relevant season and declared by the Board to have been sold by the Board, and paid for in full, during the relevant season; and
- (c) Any other wheat, being wheat of an earlier quota season, that—
 - (i) was delivered to the Board before the relevant season;
 - (ii) was not included in the pool for a season before the relevant season; and

- (iii) is declared by the Board to have been sold by the Board, and paid for in full, during the relevant season.

“(3) The pool for a season that is not a quota season but immediately follows a quota season consists of the following wheat delivered to the Board (whether in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or of a law of the Commonwealth or of another State), namely:—

- (a) Wheat of that season; and
- (b) Wheat of an earlier season, being a quota season, that was not included in the pool for an earlier season.

“(4) The Board may, in such manner as it considers equitable, attribute sales of wheat referred to in a declaration under paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section, being wheat of a particular kind, to all or any of the wheat of that particular kind delivered by particular persons.”

4 After section twenty of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

“20A—(1) Notwithstanding anything in section twenty, the Board may sell wheat for use in Australia otherwise than in the manufacture of substances for human consumption at such prices as the Board determines, being prices less than the prices that would be applicable under that section, but no such sale shall be made at a price less than the minimum price applicable in accordance with the provisions of this section. Price of wheat for use in Australia otherwise than for human consumption.

“(2) The minimum price in respect of a wholesale sale of bulk wheat of fair average quality free on rails at a port of export is the price per bushel for such a sale that corresponds with a free on board price equal to the guaranteed price of wheat of the season that was current at the beginning of the year in which the sale is made.

“(3) The minimum price in respect of a sale other than a sale referred to in subsection (2) of this section is a price per bushel ascertained by adding to or deducting from the minimum price per bushel referred to in that subsection an amount that makes a proper allowance for the quality of the wheat, the conditions of sale, and the place of delivery.

“(4) Where the Board sells wheat for use in Australia in the manufacture of substances for human consumption and the manufacture will result also in the production of substances for use for purposes other than human consumption, the Board may agree to allow the purchaser a rebate not exceeding the amount by which the price charged by the Board for the wheat could have been reduced in accordance with this section if the sale of so much of the wheat as is equal in weight to the weight of the substances produced, or to the estimated weight of the substances that will be produced, from the wheat for use for purposes other than human consumption had been a sale to which subsection (1) of this section applied.

“(5) In respect of a sale of wheat in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Board shall credit to the account referred to in subsection (1) of section twenty-one an amount per bushel of wheat comprised in the sale equal to the amount that is, at the time of the sale, the amount per bushel by which prices are to be increased under subsection (4) of section twenty for the purpose of reimbursing the Board for costs of shipment of wheat to the State, and section twenty-one applies in relation to amounts so credited in like manner as it applies in relation to other moneys credited to that account.

“(6) In this section ‘year’ means a period of twelve months commencing on the first day of December.”.
