

8. OTHER MATTERS

A. MR JUSTICE CARRUTHERS

We take this opportunity to record the appointment of the President of the Association as a judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales and congratulate him on his appointment.

B. MARITIME AUSTRALIA

The Company of Master Mariners of Australia, which formerly published Australian Seatrader, is now publishing a journal to be known as Maritime Australia. This new journal will contain items of current interest in relation to the Australian maritime industry, as well as in relation to the world shipping scene and ancillary services.

Further details about this journal may be obtained from the Company of Master Mariners of Australia, Federal Court, P.O. Box R150, Royal Exchange, Sydney, N.S.W. 2000.

C. MLAANZ DIRECTORY

Consideration is being given to the preparation of an Association directory. It would incorporate the constitution of the Association and a membership list. Would members please advise the Executive Secretary, Stuart Hetherington, of any changes to their full addresses together with 'phone and telex or facsimile numbers in order that they may be included in such a directory.

D. MR LEN NEWTON

Mr Len Newton has been made an honorary member of the Association in recognition of his efforts on behalf of the South Australian Branch.

E. MR PHIL RICE Q.C.

We take this opportunity to record the appointment of Mr Phil Rice Q.C. as the Judge-Advocate General of the Royal Australian Navy and as a judge of the District Court of South Australia and congratulate him on these appointments.
