HONORARY FELLOW

The Council of the Institute has elected Judge Frank J. Shelton, County Court, Victoria an Honorary Fellow of the Institute. Judge Shelton, a Foundation Fellow of the Institute served for many years on the Council, including 2 years as President, and Victorian Chapter Committee. His long involvement in educational activities is legendary. A long time member and past Chairman of the Journal Advisory Committee he made an important contribution to the development of The Arbitrator. He was a foundation Director of ACICA, a position which he held until his appointment to the Bench. Members throughout Australia will join in congratulating Judge Shelton on his election.
